☐ SSAs are not permitted for this grant.

Identify/Address Needs

List up to three quantifiable needs, as identified in your needs assessment, that these program funds will address. Describe your plan for addressing each need.

Quantifiable Need	Plan for Addressing Need
Timpson ISD (TISD) needs to reduce the district's 20.8% teacher turnover rate. This is higher than the State's average of 16.4% (Source: 2016-17 TAPR).	The district will address the high turnover by creating an internal leadership pipeline for existing staff. This pipeline will give teachers the opportunity to move up the ranks within the district; thus, ensuring individuals that become principals are committed to the success of the district.
Funds are needed to address the gap in student/teacher demographics. TISD has 42.2% minority students and only 21.9% minority staff for 2016-2017.	TISD will collaborate with Lamar University to provide a Principal Preparation Program to teachers that mirror the student population in an effort to address the demographic gap seen between students and staff.
TISD has only 8 campus administrators. Currently, these individuals assist in overseeing 55 teachers, as well as, 628 students.	To increase the amount of campus administrators, TISD will partner with an IHE to provide participating teachers an opportunity to become principals (campus administrators). This opportunity will increase the low number of the campus administrators that are currently at TISD.

SMART Goal

Describe the summative SMART goal you have identified for this program (a goal that is Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, and Timely), either related to student outcome or consistent with the purpose of the grant.

TISD analyzed the needs of the district by utilizing information garnered from District Report data produced by the 2016-2017 TAPR. This data was utilized to create a SMART goal. TISD broke down each category in the SMART goal in the following way: SPECIFIC: To increase the number of campus leaders by providing principal residencies. MEASURABLE: There is a high teacher turnover rate the district. The goal is to provide a principal residency program and expand opportunities for teachers. ACHIEVABLE: The goal is achievable when considering the TISD is only targeting 5.5% of the total number of teachers. RELEVANT: The goal is relevant because TISD is currently suffering from having a high teacher turnover rate. TIMELY: By continuously monitoring the benchmarks and goal in comparison to the timeline, TISD ensures the district will be able to reach their goal in a timely manner.

Measurable Progress

Identify the benchmarks that you will use at the end of the first three grant quarters to measure progress toward meeting the process and implementation goals defined for the grant.

First-Quarter Benchmark:

TISD will target 3 teachers that have demonstrated success in the classroom. These teachers currently do not have their Master's. Therefore, these teachers will simultaneously complete the Principal Preparation Program and receive certification while completing their Master's courses. TISD has created 3 separate benchmarks to measure progress toward meeting the process, and implementation goals for the grant, as well as, ensure the teachers are going to receive their credentials. The first benchmark will consist of the following 6 activities: Determining the demographic information of teachers; Ensuring there are at least 3 teachers applying for the principal residency; Tracking the courses taken, conferences attended, and the number of partnering organizations; Selecting at least 3 teachers that mirror the student demographic; Selecting at least 3 current principals/school leaders to serve as mentors; and Conducting performance evaluation data on teachers.

Measurable Progress (Cont.)Second-Quarter Benchmark:

The second benchmark has multiple activities to it as well. These activities are described below:

- Provide a principal residency program that is at least one-year in length (Assurance 1);
- Have a minimum 2 of the teachers complete the program within a timely manner;
- Have the teachers average a minimum test score of 240 on their principal certification test; and
- Have the partnering IHE provide the district with a description of the authentic leadership opportunities that are being provided to the participating staff.

Third-Quarter Benchmark:

The third benchmark will be utilized to measure the progress of the program. The benchmark will be split into five (5) activities, which include: Ensuring a minimum of 2 of the teachers finish the Principal Preparation Program with their Master's Degree; Ensuring at least 2 of the teachers finish the Principal Preparation Program with their Principal Certification; Ensuring the participating teachers, mentor principals/school leaders, and an IHE representative will be present at TEA Principal Preparation Summer Institute; Maintaining post-residency placement information for all teachers; and Ensuring a minimum of 2 of the teachers are satisfied with how the partnering IHE and mentor principals/school leaders assisted them during the program.

Project Evaluation and Modification

Describe how you will use project evaluation data to determine when and how to modify your program. If your benchmarks or summative SMART goals do not show progress, describe how you will use evaluation data to modify your program for sustainability.

Describe how you will use project evaluation data to determine when and how to modify your program. Throughout the term of the grant, stakeholders will meet at least quarterly to review project evaluation data. The stakeholders will be provided a quarterly progress report, which will be prepared by the mentor principals/school leaders.

The reports will help them to determine the status of the following: If benchmark one, two, and three of the grant are showing progress; If the summative SMART goals are showing progress; What the strengths and weaknesses of the program are; and the level of grant compliance the district is in. Based on this data, the stakeholders will be able to determine when and how to modify the program, if deemed necessary.

If your benchmarks or summative SMART goals do not show progress, describe how you will use evaluation data to modify your program for sustainability.

As seen above, through the evaluation processes the district should be able to determine if the benchmarks or summative SMART goals are not showing progress. If the district is not meeting their goals based on this evaluation data, Timpson ISD will take into consideration the recommendations of stakeholders and training providers to determine the best way to modify the program. This method will ensure sustainability, as well as, long-term support towards the program.

Statutory/Program Requirements

1. The LEA must provide sustained and rigorous clinical learning in an authentic school setting and substantial leadership responsibilities such as the ability to address and resolve a significant problem/challenge in the school that influences practice and student learning; the skills needed to establish and support effective and continuous professional development with assigned teaching staff; and the ability to facilitate stakeholders' efforts to build a collaborative team within the school to improve instructional practice, student achievement, and the school culture.

As per 2016-2017 TAPR report, the district enrollment is at 628 and falls between 500-999 student enrollment which enables the district to receive the 6 additional priority points. With the student enrollment being so low and the remote location of the district, it is very difficult to employ qualified principals. Therefore, during the grant funding period Timpson ISD will provide participating staff members with on-going support from effective mentor principals/school leaders who will ensure the participants are exposed to substantial leadership opportunities (Assurance 4).

These mentors/school leaders, in collaboration with the partnering IHE, and school district, assure that the recruited participants will be provided with:

- Rigorous clinical learning in an authentic school setting (i.e. on the campus);
- Substantial leadership responsibility (i.e. the ability to address and resolve a significant problem/challenge in the school that influences practice and student learning and will take part in curriculum, student behavior, budget, and campus facility decision-making.);
- The skills necessary to facilitate stakeholders' efforts to build a collaborative team within the school. Thus, improving instructional practice, student achievement, and the school culture (i.e. tuition and fees plus book that are needed to take the IHE courses); and
- The skills necessary to produce effective professional development. (Program Requirement 1)

Moreover, to ensure all the participating residents, the mentor principals/school leaders, and a Lamar University representative are all on the same page and properly trained, they will attend a conference held by TEA. This conference, Principal Preparation Summer Institute, will be held on or around June 6-8, 2018. (ESC Principal Institute and TEA Summer Institute Assurance 5)

2. The LEA must ensure that there is a systematic and informed targeted recruitment and selection process utilizing demonstrated criteria such as track record of measurable student achievement, evaluations/appraisals, interpersonal leadership, response to observations and feedback, and growth mindset to ensure quality of future principal pool. Plan for consideration of the following in LEA recruitment and selection strategy: degree to which the diversity of the residents mirrors that of the student population.

Timpson ISD will develop a systematic and informed targeted recruitment and selection process to ensure the most qualified and deserving staff members are selected to participate in principal residencies (Program Requirement 2). The recruitment and selection process will be based off the following criteria:

- If the applicant already has a principal certification in the state of Texas (Assurance 3);
- How well the applicant's students have performed academically (student's state exams, student's report cards, benchmarks, etc.);
- How strong the applicant's interpersonal leadership is;
- The applicant's mindset on the importance of growing the number of certified principals; and
- How the applicant mirrors the student population.

Timpson ISD will work collaboratively with Lamar University to affirm equitable access to all teachers that wish to participate in the program, while, still emphasizing a need to recruit a diversity of participants that mirror the student population. This recruitment process will ensure high-quality individuals are selected, as well as, ensure quality in the future principal pool.

3. The LEA must provide the name of the institution of higher education (IHE) or educator preparation program (EPP) providing principal preparation; the IHE's or EPP's scope and sequence that includes topics such as student culture routines, data-driven instruction, observation and feedback, team effectiveness, personal leadership, change management, and delivering effective professional development; and the IHE's or EPP's required reading and textbooks.

Prior to submitting the Principal Preparation Grant, Timpson ISD contacted Lamar University multiple times. During these discussions with Lamar University, Timpson ISD requested the following items for the Principal Preparation Grant: Scope and sequence; Topics that will be discussed; and Reading/textbooks that will be required (Program Requirement 3). These items are discussed extensively within the document attached to the grant labeled "Appendix A".

Additionally, these discussions also included some of the items that participants will be provided. These include but are not limited to: In-person and on-site coaching and evaluation with a minimum of three visits per year; Evidence-based coursework; Opportunities to practice and be evaluated in a school setting; and Once complete, a principal certification (Assurance 2).

4. The LEA must provide the IHE's or EPP's candidate evaluation process and metrics; IHE's or EPP's instructional coaching protocols such as the tools used during observations to identify the highest leverage action steps for the principal resident and the protocol the IHE or EPP uses to conduct feedback sessions.

As referenced above, Timpson ISD communicated to Lamar University extensively in preparation for the grant. During these discussions with Lamar University, Timpson ISD requested the following items for the Principal Preparation Grant: Instructional coaching protocols that will be utilized; Tools used to identify the highest leverage action steps for the principal resident; and The Protocol that Lamar University uses to conduct feedback sessions (Program Requirement 4). These items are elaborated on within the document attached to the grant labeled "Appendix A".

Statutory/Program Assurances

☒ The LEA must assure that the principal preparation residency is at least one year in length.

☒ The LEA must assure that partner IHE/EPP provides residents with certification; evidence-based coursework; opportunities to practice and be evaluated in a school setting; and in-person and on-site coaching and evaluation with a minimum of three visits per year.

☒ The LEA must assure that residents do not hold a principal certification in the state of Texas.

☒ The LEA must assure that resident will receive ongoing support from an effective mentor principal or school leader who ensures the resident is exposed to substantial leadership opportunities.

☒ The LEA must assure that all participating residents, mentor principals, and an EPP representative managing resident's on-site coaching will be present at TEA Principal Preparation Summer Institute on or around June 6-8, 2018.

LAMAR UNIVERSITY

College of Education and Human Development

Department of Education Leadership

Master of Education in Educational Administration (Online)

The Master of Education in Educational Administration online degree program is designed to help educators develop leadership skills that allow them to build diverse, inclusive learning communities of continuous improvement. With instruction from experienced superintendents and relevant, research-based content based on the needs of today's educators and school districts, you will become fully prepared for the state principal certification exam.

Program Description:

Ranked as a top affordable online graduate education program by both U.S. News & World Report and GetEducated.com, Lamar University's M.Ed. in Educational Administration online program gives you the benefit of hands-on experience from day one, immersing yourself in research and gaining valuable real-world experience throughout the program. You will begin by delving into the planning, designing and methodology of your research proposal and build skills in gathering and analyzing data.

In addition to research and evidence-based instructional and curriculum management skills, you will also learn best practices and techniques for instructional leadership related to curriculum, instruction, supervision, and theories and methods for adult learning and professional development. By developing effective communication and mentoring skills, you will also gain skills in teacher evaluation and personnel management. Finally, through internship experiences in supervision and principalship, you will gain job-related experience in supervision and facilities management.

*Price includes distance learning fee.

Mission Statement:

The mission of the Department of Educational Leadership is to provide graduate education at the Master or Doctoral levels to enable students to enter leadership careers in schools, districts, higher education and to provide counseling in schools, community agencies or private practice.

A goal of the Educational Leadership Department is for students to develop the knowledge, skills and competence required for administrative leadership and professional practice. Our instructional mission emphasizes quality teaching within a learner-centered environment. Continuing education is provided to educators who must continually be engaged in professional development. The Department recruits and retains able students with an attention to diversity.

Guiding Principles:

As a department we will always:

1. Support curriculum that is relevant and based on research, standards, and best practice.
2. Keep students and their success as our highest priority.
3. Be committed to continuous personal development.
4. Maintain integrity as a foundation for all our actions and decisions.
5. Build and support the same kind of behavior that we expect from students including functioning as a team and work.
6. Listen to the needs of practicing leaders in the communities we serve.
7. Encourage the use of technology to extend learning.
8. Promote the creation of a work environment that builds in team activities and focuses on project development.

Program Format:

In this accelerated and fully online program, you can complete your course work in as little as 18 months. Courses are weeks in duration and have a minimum of one week off between courses. Individual class modules are one week in duration and include the weekend to complete all assignments. The learning environment within the program provides a rich and engaging experience where students collaborate with others who have similar interests. The program also provides collaborative research opportunities that blend academic rigor with real-world applications.

Courses:

30 hours of coursework includes the capstone Internship (EDLD 5398) course, which requires successful completion of all other courses prior to enrollment. Courses are offered on a rotational basis and not every course is offered in each session. EDLD 5311 and EDLD 5398 are offered each session.

The Texas Education Agency requires students in online programs who live and work out of state and who plan to apply for Texas Principal Certification to undergo review of teaching credentials by the Texas Education Agency.

Note: Lamar University Graduate Education Programs do not permit students to take coursework for transient credit.

Program Cost:*

Tuition and fees for the program are currently under $9,000 including required textbooks*. Financial aid is available to those who qualify. Please contact us for more information.

Accreditation Statement:

Lamar University is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award associate, baccalaureate, masters, and doctorate degrees.

Lamar University at Glance:

Founded in 1923, Lamar University is a doctoral research university dedicated to providing a learning environment of the highest quality. Located in Beaumont, Texas and home to nearly 15,000 students, Lamar University is one of the fastest growing universities in the state and is a member of the Texas State University System. Lamar University is a globally focused institution with students from 56 different countries represented in the university enrollment.

The College of Education and Human Development at a Glance:

Master's Degree in Educational Administration (Online Only)

EDLD 5311 Fundamentals of Leadership

This course provides students the opportunity to construct a foundation of leadership through fundamental theories of leadership. Students define their own purpose of leadership and begin to develop the basic skills required to build communities that support learning for all students. Special emphasis is given to leadership as relationships between and among people and systems.

EDLD 5326 School Community Relations

This course provides a foundation for developing relationships with stakeholders within the school community; students, faculty, parents, and the community at large for the expressed goal of supporting student learning. A fundamental purpose of the course is to understand and implement strategies to develop essential partnerships between schools and the larger community to foster student learning and achievement.

EDLD 5333 Leadership for Accountability

This course concentrates on both short and long-range district and campus planning. Students will examine the state accountability system; disaggregate data, and use data and resources to improve instruction and the curriculum. An emphasis will be placed on problem solving techniques and facilitation skills of effective school leaders.

EDLD 5335 Curriculum Management

This course builds an understanding of curriculum models, curriculum frameworks, including those articulated at the state level, alignment of instruction to standards, and assessment of learning outcomes. District level curriculum and policies are reviewed. The alignment of policy, goals, and human resources are examined with application to a specified school context.

EDLD 5339 The Principalship

This course positions the school leader as the effective manager of the organization and its operations. Multiple topics are addressed such as; safe and effective learning environments, student support services, school policies and procedures, discipline management, behavior intervention, and fiscal issues in school management.

EDLD 5344 School Law

This course provides teachers a foundation to understand the legal, ethical, and policy dimensions of education. Special emphasis is given to the interpretation of case law, Texas Education Code, and federal and state statutes.

EDLD 5345 Human Resource Management

This course focuses on building the human resources to support the learning and instructional mission of the school and the attainment of school goals. Topics include: cultural competency, change management, ethical considerations in interactions with others, district policy and its relationship to personnel, confidentiality, employment and personnel law, contract renewal and nonrenewal, teacher development, and an understanding of motivational theories and its application within the school environment.

EDLD 5352 Instructional Leadership

This course emphasizes techniques for improving instruction and learning through the application of the research on effective schools and on models of instruction. Topics include leadership related to curriculum, instruction, supervision, meeting the need of diverse students, and theories and methods for adult learning and professional development. The principal as the leader of learning involves such tasks as teacher evaluation, supervision, mentoring, and effective communication.

EDLD 5397 Internship for Supervision

This course is designed to give job-related experience under the joint supervision of a school district/campus mentor and faculty of Lamar University.

EDLD 5398 Internship in Administration

The Internship is a capstone experience designed to guide aspiring leaders to demonstrate proficiency associated with campus leadership. The final hours of the internship are completed under the supervision of a practicing school administrator. A qualifying examination is required before a student can apply to take the state certification examination.

EDLD 5311: Fundamentals of Leadership and Technology

The Conceptual Framework of the Lamar University undergraduate and graduate educator preparation programs illuminates the vision of the faculty. The programs prepare educators for a changing world by requiring as outcomes pedagogical content knowledge, content proficiency, pedagogical knowledge, communications skills, values and analytical abilities. Critical thinking is a must for responding to the diverse needs of Pk – 12 students in myriad and changing settings. Lamar University educator preparation candidates also develop the dispositions and habits of mind that encourage “self – learning” and “lifelong learning”, that will enable them to encounter change with confidence.

IV. Course Description

Fundamentals of Leadership and Technology is the orientation course in the master's degree and principal certification program, and is required of all students enrolled in these programs. Students are required to meet all of the admissions requirements to be admitted fully to the program. Requirements include: valid teaching certificate, two years verifiable teaching experience, and employment on a TEA approved campus. Please note that out of state students may not be required to meet all requirements

This course is designed to assist each student in assessing his/her status in relation to the principal preparation competencies, which provide a sound foundation for becoming a successful principal or school leader. It also begins the portfolio process that documents individual growth activities designed to help each student attain leadership knowledge and skills.

This course includes candidates from three diverse programs, Master's in Educational Administration, Master's in Educational Technology Leadership, and Principal Certification Only. Although each of the three programs leads to principal certification, they each have unique requirements. It is critical for success in this course that you view all videos, complete all readings, and complete all assignments (projects and discussion boards). Web conferences will be held each week and you are strongly encouraged to attend. The web conferences will be recorded and if you cannot attend in person, you are required to review the recordings for important course information. Another key component to your success is checking course announcements and your Lamar email daily. Important course information is disseminated through course announcements and/or your Lamar email account. It is the responsibility of the student to attend/or view web conferences and to check email and announcements daily.

V. Course Standards

This course is aligned with both state and national standards, and identifies activities to address those standards. State accreditation is based on program standards adopted by the State Board of Educator Certification (SBEC). National accreditation is based on program standards of the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), and the standards specific to educational administration by the Educational Leadership Constituent Council (ELCC). The National Policy Board of Educational Administration adopted the Interstate School Leader Licensure Consortium (ISLLC) standards that are supported by NCATE and ELCC. The national standards are aligned with SBEC standards for principals. These standards serve as the foundation for the courses within the Principal Certification Program, and help assure that the prescribed course of study is authoritative and represents best practice in the field.

VI. Course Outcomes

Learning Outcomes:

1. Navigate Bb
2. Actively participate in an Adobe Connect web conferences
3. Successfully submit assignments to Bb in assignment template
4. Be familiar with the program(s) and understand the program(s) requirements

VIII. Instructional Associates

Each course section has an assigned instructional associate who will be your primary point of contact and provide support throughout the course. Information regarding your assigned Instructional Associate will be provided through an e-mail or course announcement. Your IA will provide a welcome and introductory letter with his/her contact information. Course activities, assignments, questions, and correspondence are to be emailed to your assigned IA first. If you need further assistance, please contact the professor assigned to your section.

IX. Course Expectations

Students are expected to review the course syllabus prior to completing any course activity. Students are expected to participate in the discussion forum and keep current with the course schedule, assignment due dates, and assigned readings. Student work is expected to be submitted in the required format for each assignment, follow directions and rubrics in order to receive maximum points. When working in groups, all members of the group are expected to fully participate in the activity. It is the student's responsibility to maintain appropriate equipment and access to the online environment in order to fully participate in the class.

Student conduct regulations, as found in the Lamar University Student Handbook, apply to all graduate students. These regulations include policies relating to academic dishonesty, plagiarism, university disciplinary code, and student rights and responsibilities. It is the responsibility of all graduate students to read the Student Handbook and to abide by all university regulations. The student can be found at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html>.

A. Participation/Attendance

Students are expected to log into the current course on the first day of the first week of the session (normally a Monday). Students will be dropped, without refund, after the first week for non-participations.

B. Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is expected on all assignments. All work submitted must be your own work. This includes plagiarism of both published and unpublished information. Clearly cite references when using another's ideas and use the American Psychological Association (APA) 6th Ed. for referencing both in body of a paper and reference section. Plagiarism is not just copying another's work, but it also occurs if you do not cite information that is paraphrased.

We understand that some student work is independent and some is collaborative. Please remember that even in collaborative assignments, students must submit original work. This means that two or more students may not submit assignments that are more than 15% plagiarized. It is the responsibility of each student to understand what constitutes plagiarism. Students will be held responsible for any incidences of plagiarism, accidental or not.

University policy on academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, cheating, and collusion, may be found in the Student Handbook published online at www.lamar.edu/studenthandbook.

C. Special Accommodations

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is located in the Communications building room 105. Office staff collaborates with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. For more information, visit the link <http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/>.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations. If you are registered with DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

D. Class Communication Guidelines

Graduate level discourse welcomes and respects differing opinions and perspectives.

Our differences add richness to the learning experience. Each student is expected to use constructive and professional language and intention in all written / oral communication. Please refrain from sarcasm, humor, or any judgments of a personal nature toward any other individual. Debate and critique of ideas, concepts, and issues are invited. Adhere to the same standards of behavior online that you follow in real life when writing emails or posting on the discussion board. More information on the student code of conduct can be found in the student handbook located at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html#generalprovisions>.

X. Technology Prerequisites

In this course, students should feel confident about their ability to navigate through typical websites and to use common word processing software in order to submit written assignments.

You need to be able to:

- Navigate websites, including downloading and reading files from them.
- Download and install software or plug-ins such as Adobe Reader, Window Media Player or Flash.
- Use e-mail, including attaching and downloading documents/files from e-mail.

- Save files in commonly used word processing formats (.doc, .docx, .rtf).
- Copy and paste text and other items in computer documents.
- Save and retrieve documents and files on your computer.
- Locate information on the Internet using search engines.
- Locate information in the library using the online catalog.

The system requirements for this course are:

A. Computer/Technology Requirements

1. Students will need regular access to a computer with a broadband Internet connection. The minimum computer requirements are:

- Any current Flash-compliant browser (recent versions of Firefox or Safari)
- 4 GB of RAM, 8 GB or more preferred.
 - *Please note that Blackboard may not support Internet Explorer or Chrome.
- Broadband connection (cable modem, DSL, or other high speed) required – courses are heavily video intensive
- Video display capable of high-color 16-bit display–1024 x 768 or higher resolution
- A sound card and speakers or headphones
- Current anti-virus software must be installed and kept up to date.
- Students will need some additional free software for enhanced web browsing.

Be certain to download the free versions of the software. Most home computers purchased within the last 3 - 4 years meet or surpass these requirements.

- Use Firefox (<https://www.mozilla.org/en-US/firefox/new>)
- Adobe Reader (<https://get.adobe.com/reader/>)
- Flash Player (<https://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/>)
- Java (<https://www.java.com>)
 - Attention: If you use 32-bit and 64-bit browsers interchangeably, you will need to install both 32-bit and 64-bit Java in order to have the Java plug-in for both browsers.
»FAQ about 64-bit Java for Windows

2. At a minimum, students must have Microsoft Office 2010 or newer or OpenOffice, or Student Office for Mac 2011 or newer. Microsoft Office is the standard office productivity software utilized by faculty, students, and staff. Microsoft Word is the standard word processing software, Microsoft Excel is the standard spreadsheet software, and Microsoft PowerPoint is the standard presentation software.

Microsoft Office 365 is readily available for students. Students can either use this software package online or download and install it on their computer. To access MS Office 365, log into LUConnect and click the “Students” tab. Copying and pasting, along with attaching/uploading documents for assignment submission will also be required. If you do not have Microsoft Office or Student Office for Mac, you can check with the bookstore to see if they have any student copies.

D. LUConnect Gateway

Students are asked to obtain a Lamar Electronic Account username and password so they can log into LUConnect. Students may get information on how to get into LUConnect through the following links: Goto <http://www.lamar.edu/> and then click on the LUConnect link on the left top corner of the screen. Follow the steps to secure your LUConnect Username and password. The LUConnect portal will be used for email correspondence between the professor and the class and to access this course in Blackboard.

For questions regarding your LUConnect account (setting up your account or email, username, and password issues), email us at <http://luconnect.lamar.edu> or call us at 409-880-2222, 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday.

C. Blackboard Learning Management System

This course is asynchronous and fully online using the Blackboard (Bb) Learning Management System. Please take some time to navigate the tabs in Bb. Some live weekly sessions may be scheduled through Adobe Connect at the discretion of the instructor. Students not able to attend live sessions are expected to view the recording.

All technical support questions (including password questions) for Blackboard should be addressed to Blackboard via one of the methods below:

Email: blackboard@lamar.edu

Daytime Support: 409.880.2222

Toll Free: 1.866.585.1738

More Blackboard support information can be found at <http://luonline.lamar.edu/blackboard-support/>.

D. Adobe Connect Web Conferences

You do not need to download or purchase additional software to participate in the conference. However, a headset with microphone and Web camera are preferred equipment. You will be provided with an Adobe Connect link to access the web conferences, if needed. You will not need a username or password when logging into Adobe Connect. Please log in as a guest and enter your name and section number.

You can access Adobe Connect by going to <http://lamar.adobeconnect.com>.

E. Tk20 - Electronic Portfolio

Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required signature assessments, practicum logs, mentor evaluations and other documents are archived through the Tk20 secure portal. All signature assessments will be graded via Tk20, available at <http://lamar.tk20.com>. It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as a part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date. For assistance with purchasing or using Tk20, contact the Lamar Tk20 helpdesk at tk20@lamar.edu or call 409-880-7608.

Tk20 requirements for this course include submitting the following documents to the Tk20 5311 Course Binder under the Course Requirements tab: self-disposition survey, cultural diversity survey, practicum plan, practicum plan signature page, practicum student information, student acceptance form, student handbook signature page, and teaching certificate. This portion of TK20 must be completed by the end of week 3. Additionally, students will be required to save the following items in their Tk20 5311 Course Binder under the Practicum Requirements tab: mentor information, mentor training signature page, assurances for mentor qualifications, teaching certificate, and the embedded code to the observation video. The second part of TK20 must be completed by the end of week 4. Failure to save these artifacts will result in receiving an “Incomplete” in the course and the student will not be able to continue with other courses until this has been resolved. If the observation video is not satisfactorily completed before the end of the course, a failing grade will be assigned and the student will be re-enrollment in EDLD 5311.

XI. Grading and Evaluation

General Assessment Criteria for All Student Work:

The instructors and coaches will be asking the following questions in assessing student work in this course:

- How well does the student work address the criteria outlined in the rubric?
- Was the student work completed in a timely manner?
- Does the student work exhibit intellectual honesty and commitment?

Specific instructions and rubrics for all assignments are included on the assignment documents.

Discussion Board:

Initial post(s) is due on Wednesday each unless otherwise specified and responses to colleague's by the end of the week (11:59 pm CST).

Web Conference Reflection:

Web Conference reflections will be due at the end of the week (11:59 pm CST). Students are expected to reflect on topic thoroughly and scholarly. Information for the reflection will be presented each week in the web conference.

Weekly Assignment:

Each week students will have a weekly assignment due at the end of the week (11:59 pm CST). The weekly web conference will be extremely helpful to students in clarifying any misunderstandings regarding weekly assignments.

Late Policy:

No late work will be accepted unless there are extenuating circumstances. Extenuating circumstances must be discussed with course professor before the due date for the assignment. Course professor will decide if extenuating circumstances exist for a deadline extension.

Please do not wait until the last minute to submit your assignments or web conference reflections. If you have any challenges in submitting, don't hesitate to immediately contact Tech Support for assistance.

Grading Policy:

Points will be awarded for assignments as follows:

F = Below 70% (Below 420 points)

XII. Academic Continuity Plan

In the event of an announced campus closure in excess of four days due to a hurricane or other disaster, students are expected to login to Lamar University's website's homepage www.lamar.edu for instructions about continuing courses remotely.

XIII. Field Observation Video Submission

All students are required to embed their Observing video in their Tk20 course binder. A Lamar Faculty Field Supervisor will contact each student via an email letter explaining how they will be available to answer questions and review video submissions to be sure all the required components are in the video in TK20.

XIV. Sexual Harassment:

In accordance with administrative policy, sexual harassment is reprehensible and will not be tolerated by the university. Behavior in the course must conform to the university policy.

XV. Drop/Add Policy:

It is your responsibility to make sure that you are officially enrolled in this course. If, at any point, you decide to not participate in this course, it is your responsibility to officially drop or withdraw from enrollment. Failure to do so may result in a failing grade. Drops after the course begins may carry financial penalty in that full reimbursement may not be possible.

- IV. Course Description This course provides a foundation for developing relationships with stakeholders within the school community; students, faculty, parents, and the community at large for the expressed goal of supporting student learning. A fundamental purpose of the course is to understand and implement strategies to develop essential partnerships between schools and the larger community to foster student learning and achievement.

Standards This course has been aligned with state and national standards as well as the Competencies of the Texas Examinations of Educator Standards (TExES), Field 068 Principal Exam. The competencies document, located in the Principal Test Framework, and the Standards for Principals, are both found on the website of the Texas State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC). Reference these documents now; they should guide your learning. They are also the basis of the comprehensive competency exam for the M.Ed. in Educational Administration necessary for approval to take the TExES.

The content is also aligned with national standards articulated by the National Policy Board for Educational Administration and the Educational Leadership Constituency Council (ELCC).

The ELCC standard related to this course include: Standard 4.0: A building-level education leader applies knowledge that promotes the success of every student by collaborating with faculty and community members, responding to diverse community interests and needs, and mobilizing community resources on behalf of the school by collecting and analyzing information pertinent to improvement of the school's educational environment; promotes an understanding, appreciation, and use of the diverse cultural, social, and intellectual resources within the school community; building and sustaining positive relationships with families and caregivers; and cultivating productive school relationships with community partners.

ELCC Standard Elements:

ELCC 4.1: Candidates understand and can collaborate with faculty and community members by collecting and analyzing information pertinent to the improvement of the school's educational environment.

ELCC 4.2: Candidates understand and can mobilize community resources by promoting an understanding, appreciation, and use of diverse cultural, social, and intellectual resources within the school community.

ELCC 4.3: Candidates understand and can respond to community interests and needs by building and sustaining positive school relationships with families and caregivers.

ELCC 4.4: Candidates understand and can respond to community interests and needs by building and sustaining productive school relationships with community partners.

(b) School Culture: The Principal:

(11) implements effective strategies to systematically gather input from all campus stakeholders, supporting innovative thinking and an inclusive culture;

(e) Executive Leadership: The Principal:

(4) develops and implements a comprehensive program of community relations, which uses strategies that will effectively involve and inform multiple constituencies;

(5) establishes partnerships with parents, businesses, and other groups in the community to strengthen programs and support campus goals;

(6) demonstrates awareness of social and economic issues that exist within the school and community that could impact campus operations and student learning;

(g) Ethics, Equity and Diversity: The principal will . . .

(9) communicates productively with all audiences through strong communication skills and understands how to communicate a message in different ways to meet the needs of various audiences; and

(10) treats all members of the community with respect and develops strong, positive relationships with them.

VI. Course Prerequisites

EDLD 5311 is a prerequisite for all other courses.

For Master's candidates, EDLD 5397 is a prerequisite for EDLD 5339, EDLD 5312, EDLD 5335, EDLD 5326, and EDLD 5398.

Superintendent program and Digital Learning and Leading will have other pre-requisites.

VII. Materials

A. Textbook – No textbook. Content comes from readings and media resources.

B. Other Resources

LIB Guide for School Community Relations—School, Family, and Community Partnership Project-- <http://libguides.lamar.edu/schoolcommunity>

VIII. Instructional Associates

Each course section has an assigned instructional associate who will be your primary point of contact and provide support throughout the course. Information regarding your assigned Instructional Associate will be provided through an e-mail or course announcement. Your IA will provide a welcome and introductory letter with his/her contact information. Course activities, assignments, questions, and correspondence are to be emailed to your assigned IA first. If you need further assistance, please contact the professor assigned to your section.

IX. Course Expectations

Students should check Blackboard course announcements and their Lamar email daily. Students are expected to review the course syllabus prior to completing any course activity. Students are expected to participate in the discussion forum. All discussion responses should be completed and elaborated to receive full credit. Initial response due day 4 @ 11:59 p.m. Respond to 2 colleagues by 7th day @ 11:59 p.m. Cite sources (i.e., author (year), page#).

Complete your work in the discussion by 11:59 p.m. on the seventh day of Week 1.

All assignments are due on or before 11:59 p.m. on Day 7 of each week unless stated otherwise in the assignment. Students are expected to keep current with the course schedule, assignment due dates, and assigned readings. Student work is expected to be submitted in the required format for each assignment and follow directions and rubrics to receive maximum points. When working in groups, all members of the group are expected to fully participate in the activity. It is the student's responsibility to maintain appropriate equipment and access to the online environment to fully participate in the class.

Student conduct regulations, as found in the Lamar University Student Handbook, apply to all graduate students. These regulations include policies relating to academic dishonesty, plagiarism, university disciplinary code, and student rights and responsibilities. It is the responsibility of all graduate students to read the Student Handbook and to abide by all university regulations. The student can be found at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html>.

A. Participation/Attendance

Students are expected to log into the current course on the first day of the first week of the session (normally a Monday). Students will be dropped, without refund, after the first week for non-participations.

B. Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is expected on all assignments. All work submitted must be your own work. This includes plagiarism of both published and unpublished information. Clearly cite references when using another's ideas and use the American Psychological Association (APA) 6th Ed. for referencing both in body of a paper and reference section. Plagiarism is not just copying another's work, but it also occurs if you do not cite information that is paraphrased.

We understand that some student work is independent and some is collaborative. Please remember that even in collaborative assignments, students must submit original work. This means that two or more students may not submit assignments that are more than 15% plagiarized. It is the responsibility of each student to understand what constitutes plagiarized. Students will be held responsible for any incidences of plagiarism, accidental or not. Self-plagiarism is when all work or partial work submitted in prior courses is submitted in the current course. This type of plagiarism is subject to regular plagiarism guidelines.

University policy on academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, cheating, and collusion, may be found in the Student Handbook published online at www.lamar.edu/student-handbook.

C. Special Accommodations

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is in the Communications building room 105. Office staff collaborate with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. For more information, visit the link

Summer 2017

<http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/>.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations. If you are registered with DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

D. Class Communication Guidelines

Graduate level discourse welcomes and respects differing opinions and perspectives. Our differences add richness to the learning experience. Each student is expected to use constructive and professional language and intention in all written / oral communication. Please refrain from sarcasm, humor, or any judgments of a personal nature toward any other individual. Debate and critique of ideas, concepts, and issues are invited.

Adhere to the same standards of behavior online that you follow in real life when writing emails or posting on the discussion board. More information on the student code of conduct can be found in the student handbook located at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html#generalprovisions>.

X. Technology Prerequisites

In this course, students should feel confident about their ability to navigate through typical websites and to use common word processing software to submit written assignments.

You need to be able to:

- Navigate websites, including downloading and reading files from them.
- Download and install software or plug-ins such as Adobe Reader, Window Media Player or Flash.
- Use e-mail, including attaching and downloading documents/files from e-mail.
- Save files in commonly used word processing formats (.doc, .docx, .rtf).
- Copy and paste text and other items in computer documents.

Summer 2017

- Save and retrieve documents and files on your computer.
- Locate information on the Internet using search engines.
- Locate information in the library using the online catalog.

The system requirements for this course are:

A. Computer/Technology Requirements

1. Students will need regular access to a computer with a broadband Internet connection. The minimum computer requirements are:

- Any current Flash-compliant browser (recent versions of Firefox or Safari)
- 4 GB of RAM, 8 GB or more preferred
 - *Please note that Blackboard may not support Internet Explorer or Chrome.
- Broadband connection (cable modem, DSL, or other high speed) required – courses are heavily video intensive
- Video display capable of high-color 16-bit display – 1024 x 768 or higher resolution
- A sound card and speakers or headphones
- Current anti-virus software must be installed and kept up to date.
- Students will need some additional free software for enhanced web browsing. Be certain to download the free versions of the software. Most home computers purchased within the last 3-4 years meet or surpass these requirements.
 - Use Firefox (<https://www.mozilla.org/en-US/firefox/new>)
 - Adobe Reader (<https://get.adobe.com/reader/>)
 - Flash Player (<https://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/>)
 - Java (<https://www.java.com>)
 - Attention: If you use 32-bit and 64-bit browsers interchangeably, you will need to install both 32-bit and 64-bit Java to have the Java plug-in for both browsers. » FAQ about 64-bit Java for Windows

2. At a minimum, students must have Microsoft Office 2010 or newer or OpenOffice, or Student Office for Mac 2011 or newer. Microsoft Office is the standard office productivity software utilized by faculty, students, and staff. Microsoft Word is the standard word processing software, Microsoft Excel is the standard spreadsheet software, and Microsoft PowerPoint is the standard presentation software. Microsoft Office 365 is readily available for students. Students can either use this software package online or download and install it on their computer. To access MS Office 365, log into LU Connect and click the “Students” tab. Copying and pasting, along with attaching/uploading documents for assignment submission will also be required. If you do not have Microsoft Office or Student Office for Mac, you can check with the bookstore to see if they have any student copies.

B. LU Connect Gateway

Students are asked to obtain a Lamar Electronic Account user name and password so they can log into LU Connect. Students may get information on how to get into LU Connect through the following links: Go to <http://www.lamar.edu/> and then click on the LU Connect link on the left top corner of the screen. Follow the steps to secure your LU Connect username and password. The LU Connect portal will be used for email correspondence between the professor and the class and to access this course in Blackboard.

For questions regarding your LU Connect account (setting up your account or email, username, and password issues), email us at LUConnect@lamar.edu or call us at 409-880-2222, 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday.

C. Blackboard Learning Management System

This course is asynchronous and fully online using the Blackboard (Bb) Learning Management System. Please take some time to navigate the tabs in Bb. Some live weekly sessions may be scheduled through Adobe Connect at the discretion of the instructor. Students not able to attend live sessions are expected to view the recording. All technical support questions (including password questions) for Blackboard should be addressed to Blackboard via one of the methods below: Email:

blackboard@lamar.edu

Daytime Support: 409.880.2222

Tool Free: 1.866.585.1738

More Blackboard support information can be found at

D. Adobe Connect Web Conferences

You do not need to download or purchase additional software to participate in the conference. However, a headset with microphone and Web camera are preferred equipment. You will be provided with an Adobe Connect link to access the web conferences, if needed. You will not need a username or password when logging into Adobe Connect. Please log in as a guest and enter your name and section number.

You can access Adobe Connect by going to <http://lamar.adobeconnect.com>.

E. Tk20 - Electronic Portfolio

Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required signature assessments, practicum logs, mentor evaluations and other documents are archived through the Tk20 secure portal. All signature assessments will be graded via Tk20, available at <http://lamar.tk20.com>. It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as a part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date. For assistance with purchasing or using Tk20, contact the Lamar Tk20 helpdesk at tk20@lamar.edu or call 409-880-7608.

XI. Grading and Evaluation

A. Assignments

Assignments	Points
Weekly Discussions (20) Points Per Week	100
Analysis of School Involvement Program	60
Organizational Meeting with Site-Based Committee	60
Partnership Time Line and Evaluation Plan	60
Partnership Report	140
Presentation Including an Agenda for First Meeting	80
Total Points for Course	500

All assignments are due on the seventh day of the week, which is normally Sunday (11:59 PM CST).

B. Grading Scale

In determining the final course grade, the following scale is used:

450 – 500 points = A

400 – 449 points = B

350 – 399 points = C

Below 350 points = F

Students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA to be able to graduate.

A course grade that is less than "C" is unacceptable for credit in the Lamar Principal and Superintendent Preparation Program. A course grade of less than "C" will require the student to retake the course.

C. Rubrics are incorporated into each assignment. Review and follow them as you complete each assignment.

D. Late Work Policy

Graduate students (especially aspiring leaders) are expected to meet deadlines. Students unable to complete an assignment by the due date must contact the professor assigned to your section prior to foreseen events or immediately following unforeseen events. A 10% deduction from the assignment grade will occur for each day the assignment has not been submitted. Discussion board assignments are not accepted late.

XII. Drop/Add Policy

As a student, it is your responsibility to make sure you are officially enrolled in this course. If you decide to drop the class, it is your responsibility to officially drop. Any student who stops attending class and does not officially drop, will earn an F for the course. Detailed information about critical dates can be found at

XIII. Incomplete Grade Policy

At the discretion of the course professor, a grade of “I” (Incomplete) may be assigned if the student is unable to complete course requirements due to medical issues, family emergencies, or life events beyond the student’s control. Procrastination or failure to plan a balance between work and program do not apply. Students must inform the professor of circumstances meeting the requirements for an Incomplete prior to the end of the course. The student will have until the end of the following semester to complete and submit all required assignments. If not completed and submitted by this deadline, the grade will automatically change to a F. Please note that any course grade that changes to a F will not be subject to a grade change.

Note: Any Incompletes must be resolved prior to enrolling in either EDLD 5397 or 5398.

XIV. Course Evaluation

It is the right and the responsibility of each student to complete the course evaluation. An email will be sent by the university with directions and timelines to complete. In addition, course evaluation information and instructions. are available in your Practicum Orientation Course.

XV. Additional Course Information

A. Syllabus Subject to Change

While information and assurances are provided in this course syllabus, content may change in keeping with new research and literature and that events beyond the control of the instructor could occur. Students will be informed of any substantive occurrences that will produce syllabus changes.

B. Academic Continuity Plan

In the event of an announced campus closure more than four days due to a hurricane or other disaster, students are expected to login to Lamar University’s website’s homepage <http://www.lamar.edu> for instructions about continuing courses online.

Discussion 1: You are a new assistant principal. Your first task is to form the first site-based management team for your campus. You develop a plan for creating the committee and setting the agenda for its first meeting. Be sure to consider requirements from HB 5 included in Week 2 readings and to include John Hopkins University's six types of activities for partnerships. How do you proceed using the examples and what you have learned?

Discussion for Week 4 is due on Day 4 and Day 7 in Week 4.

Assignment 1: Partnership Report Using Report Template

You are to develop a formal report. The report presents your partnership concept to its potential stakeholders to gain support of the proposed partnership. The report template is required and is included in your assignment.

Assignments 1 is due on Day 7, Week 4.

Week 5 Preparation for First Meeting of New Partnership

Readings:

Discussion 1: Critical Reflection and Evaluation on Course Content. In two to three paragraphs use professional campus examples to support your evaluation. Use credible, relevant sources to fully develop your ideas. Provide constructive supportive feedback to colleagues in responses. Meet all citations and structure requirements.

Assignment 1 Preparation with Agenda for First Meeting with Stakeholders in August. You are to create a presentation which includes an agenda for the first meeting of the new partnership. Your presentation must include partnership goals and the six types of partnership activities to include. You may choose the digital presentation tool of your choice to create your presentation agenda. You may use video if you choose. You have technology tutorials in the assignment.

Assignments 1 is due on Day 7, Week 5. Your work may be submitted early

VII. Course Prerequisites

Admission to the Lamar Academic Partnership Program. Masters students must have successfully completed EDLD 5311 and EDLD 5301. Principal certification only students must have successfully completed EDLD 5311.

* Always read the announcement boards daily!

* Always check with your Instructional Associate with questions/concerns, first!

Communication: Always know your SECTION number. You will be attending EDLD 5333 Section ??? Always know your Instructional Associate, for your section. Always contact that IA with your section number in the subject title of all e-mails.

VIII. Materials

- A. There is no required textbook for this course. The required readings for this course are provided in the Blackboard course.

B. Other Resources

Access the Lib Guide for EDLD 5333

URL: <http://libguides.lamar.edu/leadership>

Instructional Associates

Information about your Instructional Associate (IA) will be provided through an email. Questions concerning assignments, submissions, due dates, etc. should be sent to the IA. Questions concerning Tk20 or Blackboard should be directed to Tk20 or Bb help. IA's routinely conduct inter-rater reliability to ensure equality of grading.

IX. Course Expectations

Student conduct regulations, as found in the Lamar University-Beaumont Student Handbook, apply to all graduate students. These regulations include policies relating to academic dishonesty, plagiarism, University disciplinary code, and student rights and responsibilities. It is the responsibility of all graduate students to read the Student Handbook and to abide by all University regulations. All student work is independent and is not considered a portion of a cohort, team or other participatory activity. The student can be found at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html>.

A. Participation/Attendance

Students are expected to participate in the discussion forum and keep current with the course schedule, assignment due dates, and assigned readings.

B. Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is expected on all assignments. All work submitted must be your own work. This includes plagiarism of both published and unpublished information. Clearly cite references when using another's ideas and use the American Psychological Association (APA) 6th Ed. for referencing both in body of a paper and reference section. Plagiarism is not just copying another's work, but it also occurs if you do not cite information that is paraphrased. Take notes on a reading assignment and summarize it in your own words to demonstrate to the instructor that you understand the information. Self-plagiarism is when all work or partial work submitted in prior courses is submitted in the current course. This type of plagiarism is subject to regular plagiarism guidelines.

C. Special Accommodations

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is located in the Communications building room 105. Office staff collaborate with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. For more information, visit the link <http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/>.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations. If you are registered with DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

D. Class Communication Guidelines

Graduate level discourse welcomes and respects differing opinions and perspectives. Our differences add richness to the learning experience. Each student is expected to use constructive and professional language and intention in all written / oral communication. Please refrain from sarcasm, humor, or any judgments of a personal nature toward any other individual. Debate and critique of ideas, concepts, and issues are invited.

Adhere to the same standards of behavior online that you follow in real life when writing emails or posting on the discussion board. More information on the student code of conduct can be found in the student handbook located at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html#generalprovisions>.

X. Technology Prerequisites and Systems

Students are not required to have advanced technology training or skills in order to be successful in this course. They should, however, feel confident about their ability to navigate through typical websites and to use common word processing software in order to submit written assignments. The system requirements for this course are:

* Always read the announcement boards daily!

* Always check with your Instructional Associate with questions/concerns, first!

Communication: Always know your SECTION number. You will be attending EDLD 5333 Section ??? Always know your Instructional Associate, for your section. Always contact that IA with your section number in the subject title of all e-mails.

A. LU Connect Gateway

Students are asked to obtain a Lamar Electronic Account user name and password so they can log into LU Connect. Students may get information on how to get into LU Connect through the following links: Go to <http://www.lamar.edu/> and then click on the LU Connect link on the left top corner of the screen. Follow the steps to secure your LU Connect username and password. The LU Connect portal will be used for email correspondence between the professor and the class and to access this course in Blackboard.

For questions regarding your LU Connect account (setting up your account or email, username, and password issues), email us at myLamar@lamar.edu or call us at 409-880-2222, 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday.

B. Blackboard Learning Management System

This course is asynchronous and fully online using the Blackboard (Bb) Learning Management System. Please take some time to navigate the tabs in Bb. Some live weekly sessions may be scheduled through Adobe Connect at the discretion of the instructor. Students not able to attend live sessions are expected to view the recording. All technical support questions (including password questions) for Blackboard should be addressed to Blackboard via one of the methods below:

Email: blackboard@lamar.edu

Daytime Support: 409.880.2222

Toll Free: 1.866.585.1738

More Blackboard support information can be found at <http://luonline.lamar.edu/blackboard-support/>.

C. Adobe Connect Web Conferences

You do not need to download or purchase additional software to participate in the conference. However, a headset with microphone and Web camera are preferred equipment. You will be provided with an Adobe Connect link to access the web conferences, if needed. You will not need a username or password when logging into Adobe Connect. Please log in as a guest and enter your name and section number.

You can access Adobe Connect by going to <http://lamar.adobeconnect.com>.

D. Tk20 - Electronic Portfolio

Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required signature assessments, practicum logs, mentor evaluations and other documents are archived through the Tk20 secure portal. All signature assessments will be graded via Tk20, available at <http://lamar.tk20.com>. It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as a part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date. For assistance with purchasing or using Tk20, contact the Lamar Tk20 helpdesk at tk20@lamar.edu or call 409-880-7608.

XI. Grading and Evaluation

A. Assignments

Assignments	Points
Weekly Discussion (20 points per week)	100
Week 1: Analyzing Campus Data	80
Week 2: Mining for Data	80
Week 3: Targeting and Addressing a Need	80
Week 4: Creating a Vision, Action Planning, and Professional Growth	80
Week 5: Site Based Decision Making Interviews & Reflections	80
Total Points for course	500

C. Grading Scale

In determining the final course grade, the following scale is used:

450 – 500 points = A

400 – 449 points = B

350 – 399 points = C

Below 350 points = F

Students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA to be able to graduate.

D. Rubrics are incorporated into each assignment. Review and follow them as you complete each assignment.

E. Late Work Policy

Graduate students (especially aspiring leaders) are expected to meet deadlines. Students unable to complete an assignment by the due date must contact the IA prior to foreseen events or immediately following unforeseen events. Extensions (48 hours) may be granted with no penalty only for emergencies and extenuating circumstances by contacting the assigned Instructional Associate via e-mail or phone “prior” to the due date with the request. A 10% deduction from the final grade will occur for each day the assignment has not been submitted. Assignments received beyond the next week’s due date will be assessed a ‘zero’.

The week 4 assignment is a key assessment, and MUST be submitted to TK20 and Blackboard by the end of Week 4. It will be graded in TK20 only. The grade will be reported in Blackboard. Failure to submit to tk20 will result in an “Incomplete” in the course. Receiving an incomplete in the course may result in a hold on your enrollment in subsequent courses and an "I" automatically changes to an "F" at the end of the next semester. Do not take a chance. Be sure you have a TK-20 Account and be sure that you follow directions to submit any document or assignment to TK-20 as well as Blackboard.

Steps for completing a course binder to submit the Week 4 assignment in Tk20:

A link for instructions for completing a course binder is provided below:

<https://helpdesk.tk20.com/helpdesk/completing-a-course-binder-version-8/>

If you need additional assistance, please contact the Lamar Tk20 helpdesk at tk20@lamar.edu or call 409-880-7608 or 409-880-2126

XII. Drop/Add Policy

As a student, it is your responsibility to make sure you are officially enrolled in this course. If you decide to drop the class, it is your responsibility to officially drop. Any student who stops attending class and does not officially drop, will earn an F for the course.

XIII. Incomplete Grade Policy

The professor may assign a grade of "I" (Incomplete) if the student is unable to complete course requirements due to medical issues, family emergencies, or life events beyond the student's control. Procrastination or failure to plan a balance between work and program do not apply. Students must inform the professor of circumstances meeting the requirements for an Incomplete prior to the end of the course. The student will have until the end of the following semester to complete and submit all required assignments. If not completed and submitted by this deadline, the grade will automatically change to an F. Note: Any Incompletes must be successfully completed prior to enrolling in either EDLD 5397 or 5398.

XIV. Course Evaluation

It is the right and the responsibility of each student to complete the course evaluation. An email will be sent by the university with directions and timelines to complete

XV. Additional Course Information

A. Syllabus Subject to Change

While information and assurances are provided in this course syllabus, it should be understood that content may change in keeping with new research and literature and that events beyond the control of the instructor could occur. Students will be informed of any substantive occurrences that will produce syllabus changes.

B. Academic Continuity Plan

In the event of an announced campus closure in excess of four days due to a hurricane

* Always read the announcement boards daily!

* Always check with your Instructional Associate with questions/concerns, first!

Communication: Always know your SECTION number. You will be attending EDLD 5333 Section ??? Always know your Instructional Associate, for your section. Always contact that IA with your section number in the subject title of all e-mails.

or other disaster, students are expected to login to Lamar University's website's homepage <http://www.lamar.edu> for instructions about continuing courses online.5t

IV. Course Description

This course builds an understanding of (1) curriculum models; (2) curriculum frameworks, including those articulated at the state level; (3) alignment of instruction to standards; and (4) assessment of learning outcomes. District-level curriculum policies and requirements are reviewed. The alignment of curriculum policy, goals, assessment, and resources are examined with application to a specified school context.

V. Standards

ELCC Standards

ELCC Standard 1.3 Candidates understand and can promote continual and sustainable school improvement.

ELCC Standard 2.1 Candidates understand and can sustain a school culture and instructional program conducive to student learning through collaboration, trust, and a personalized learning environment with high expectations for students.

ELCC Standard 2.2 Candidates understand and can create and evaluate comprehensive, rigorous, and coherent curricular and instructional school program

ELCC Standard 2.3 Candidates understand and can develop and supervise the instructional capacity of school staff

Texas State Board for Education Certification (SBEC) Principal Standards

Ethics, Equity, and Diversity. The principal:

- (4) models and promotes the continuous and appropriate development of all learners in the campus community;
- (5) ensures all students have access to effective educators and continuous learning opportunities;

(b) School Culture. The principal:

- (1) ensures that a positive, collaborative, and collegial school culture facilitates and enhances the implementation of campus initiatives and the achievement of campus goals;
- (2) uses emerging issues, recent research, demographic data, knowledge of systems, campus climate inventories, student learning data, and other information to collaboratively develop a shared campus vision;
- (3) facilitates the collaborative development of a plan in which objectives and strategies to implement the campus vision are clearly articulated;

(d) Human Capital. The principal:

- (1) invests and manages time to prioritize the development, support, and supervision of the staff to enhance student outcomes;
- (2) ensures all staff have clear expectations that guide them and by which they are assessed, including the use of and familiarity with evidence-based appraisal rubrics, where applicable;
- (3) uses data from multiple points of the year to complete accurate appraisals of all staff, using evidence from regular observations, student data, and other sources to evaluate the effectiveness of teachers and staff;
- (4) coaches and develops educators by conducting conferences, giving individualized feedback, and supporting individualized professional growth opportunities;
- (5) facilitates the campus's professional learning community to review data, processes, and policies in order to improve teaching and learning in the school;
- (6) creates opportunities for effective staff to take on a variety of leadership roles and appropriately delegates responsibilities to staff and administrators on the leadership team;
- (7) collaboratively develops, implements, and revises a comprehensive and on-going plan for professional development of campus staff that addresses staff needs based on staff appraisal trends, goals, and student information;
- (8) ensures the effective implementation of a continuum of professional development by the appropriate allocation of time, funding, and other needed resources;

(c) Leading Learning. The principal:

- (1) creates a campus culture that sets high expectations, promotes learning, and provides intellectual stimulation for self, students, and staff;
- (2) prioritizes instruction and student achievement by understanding, sharing, and promoting a clear definition of high-quality instruction based on best practices from recent research;
- (3) routinely monitors and improves instruction by visiting classrooms, engaging in formative, evidence-based appraisal processes and conferences with teachers, and attending grade or team

meetings;

(4) facilitates the use of sound research-based practice in the development and implementation of campus curricular, co-curricular curricular, and extracurricular programs to fulfill academic, developmental, social, and cultural needs;

(5) facilitates campus participation in collaborative school district planning, implementation, monitoring, and curriculum revision to ensure appropriate scope, sequence, content, and alignment;

(6) implements a rigorous curriculum aligned with state standards, including college and career readiness standards;

(7) analyzes the curriculum to ensure that teachers align content across grades and that curricular scopes and sequences meet the particular needs of their diverse student populations;

(8) monitors and ensures staff uses multiple forms of student data to inform instruction and intervention decisions to maximize instructional effectiveness and student achievement;

(9) ensures that effective instruction maximizes growth of individual students and student groups, supports equity, and eliminates the achievement gap;

(10) ensures staff have the capacity and time to collaboratively and individually use classroom formative and summative assessment data to inform effective instructional practices and interventions; and

(11) facilitates the use and integration of technology, telecommunications, and information systems that enhance learning.

VI. Course Outcomes

A. Learning Outcomes

- ☐ Identify and describe the meaning of varying types of curriculum.
- ☐ Describe how conceptions of external and internal accountability for learning and curriculum have evolved.
- ☐ Distinguish state and national models of curriculum and learning.
- ☐ Identify and apply the components of the TEA learning system: learning goals, curriculum documents, instructional program, staff development program, measurement system, and administrative procedures.
- ☐ Identify elements and principles of the "instructional core" framework
- ☐ Identify learner-centered principles, and explain how they relate to curriculum, instruction, and staff development.
- ☐ Identify and apply the components of the TEA learning system: learning goals, curriculum documents, instructional program, staff development program, measurement system, and administrative procedures.
- ☐ Explain how the concepts and processes of "curriculum auditing" and "curriculum mapping" are similar and different.
- ☐ Articulate the role of state policies as a framework for curriculum development and management at the district and local levels.
- ☐ Describe the role of instructional leadership in the creation of collaboratively developed, data based campus improvement plans.

- ☐ Identify leadership strategies to facilitate site-based, teacher engaged, decision-making in campus improvement initiatives.
- ☐ Identify instructional practices that can be used to address student differences in how they learn and perform on academic tasks.
- ☐ Facilitate effective campus curriculum planning based on various factors related to instructional leadership, including data based decision-making, research-based practices, and learner-centered professional development.

B. Skill/Performance Outcomes

- ☐ Identify and explain types of curriculum.
- ☐ Identify and summarize the components of a state-required curriculum.
- ☐ Analyze curriculum and learning requirements in the context of the TEA learning system.
- ☐ Analyze and explain the elements of the "instructional core" and the seven principles associated with it.
- ☐ Apply the principles of learner-centered instruction in the context of "how people learn" and "data-based decision making" in the organization of a staff development session.
- ☐ Analyze learner-centered staff development and measurement in the context of the TEA learning system.
- ☐ Analyze the all of the components of the TEA learning system and make suggestions for improvements.
- ☐ Describe and critique the policy of a school board in regard to curriculum and instruction and its management.
- ☐ Analyze state-generated data and a Campus Improvement Plan for the purpose of decision-making.
- ☐ Describe the purpose and use of two curriculum management tools - curriculum auditing and curriculum mapping.
- ☐ Demonstrate knowledge of the TEA learning system, data-based decision making learner-centered instruction, and campus improvement planning by finalizing a staff development session based on an identified campus need.
- ☐ Demonstrate an understanding of ongoing, continuous improvement by revising a staff development session based on an identified campus need.
- ☐ Create an action plan to improve local school district or campus performance on a component of the TEA learning system in the context of the "instructional core."
- ☐ Reflect on the roles, responsibilities, and challenges of an instructional leader.

VIII. Instructional Associates

Each course section has an assigned instructional associate who will be your primary point of contact and provide support throughout the course. Information regarding your assigned Instructional Associate will be provided through an e-mail or course announcement. Your IA will provide a welcome and introductory letter with his/her contact information. Course activities, assignments, questions, and correspondence are to be emailed to your assigned IA first. If you need further assistance, please contact the professor assigned to your section.

IX. Course Expectations

Students are expected to review the course syllabus prior to completing any course activity. Students are expected to participate in the discussion forum and keep current with the course schedule, assignment due dates, and assigned readings. Student work is expected to be submitted in the required format for each assignment, follow directions and rubrics in order to receive maximum points. When working in groups, all members of the group are expected to fully participate in the activity. It is the student's responsibility to maintain appropriate equipment and access to the online environment in order to fully participate in the class.

Student conduct regulations, as found in the Lamar University Student Handbook, apply to all graduate students. These regulations include policies relating to academic dishonesty, plagiarism, university disciplinary code, and student rights and responsibilities. It is the responsibility of all graduate students to read the Student Handbook and to abide by all university regulations. The student can be found at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html>.

A. Participation/Attendance

Students are expected to log into the current course on the first day of the first week of the session (normally a Monday, but in this course will be Tuesday, May 31, 2016).

Students will be dropped, without refund, after the first week for non-participations.

B. Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is expected on all assignments. All work submitted must be your own work. This includes plagiarism of both published and unpublished information. Clearly cite references when using another's ideas and use the American Psychological Association (APA) 6th Ed. for referencing both in body of a paper and reference section. Plagiarism is not just copying another's work, but it also occurs if you do not cite information that is paraphrased.

We understand that some student work is independent and some is collaborative. Please remember that even in collaborative assignments, students must submit original work. This means that two or more students may not submit assignments that are more than 15% plagiarized. It is the responsibility of each student to understand what constitutes plagiarized. Students will be held responsible for any incidences of plagiarism, accidental or not.

University policy on academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, cheating, and collusion, may be found in the Student Handbook published online at www.lamar.edu/student-handbook.

C. Special Accommodations

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is located in the Communications building room 105. Office staff collaborates with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. For more information, visit the link <http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/>.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations. If you are registered with DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

D. Class Communication Guidelines

Graduate level discourse welcomes and respects differing opinions and perspectives. Our differences add richness to the learning experience. Each student is expected to use constructive and professional language and intention in all written / oral communication. Please refrain from sarcasm, humor, or any judgments of a personal nature toward any other individual. Debate and critique of ideas, concepts, and issues are invited.

Adhere to the same standards of behavior online that you follow in real life when writing emails or posting on the discussion board. More information on the student code of conduct can be found in the student handbook located at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html#generalprovisions>.

X. Technology Prerequisites

In this course, students should feel confident about their ability to navigate through typical websites and to use common word processing software in order to submit written assignments.

You need to be able to:

- ☐ Navigate websites, including downloading and reading files from them.
- ☐ Download and install software or plug-ins such as Adobe Reader, Window Media Player or Flash.
- ☐ Use e-mail, including attaching and downloading documents/files from e-mail.
- ☐ Save files in commonly used word processing formats (.doc, .docx, .rtf).
- ☐ Copy and paste text and other items in computer documents.
- ☐ Save and retrieve documents and files on your computer.
- ☐ Locate information on the Internet using search engines.
- ☐ Locate information in the library using the online catalog.

The system requirements for this course are:

A. Computer/Technology Requirements

1. Students will need regular access to a computer with a broadband Internet connection. The minimum computer requirements are:

- ☐ Any current Flash-compliant browser (recent versions of Firefox or Safari)
- ☐ 4 GB of RAM, 8 GB or more preferred
 - Please note that Blackboard may not support Internet Explorer or Chrome.
- ☐ Broadband connection (cable modem, DSL, or other high speed) required – courses are heavily video intensive

- Video display capable of high-color 16-bit display – 1024 x 768 or higher resolution
- A sound card and speakers or headphones
- Current anti-virus software must be installed and kept up to date.
- Students will need some additional free software for enhanced web browsing. Be certain to download the free versions of the software. Most home computers purchased within the last 3-4 years meet or surpass these requirements.
 - Use Firefox (<https://www.mozilla.org/en-US/firefox/new>)
 - Adobe Reader (<https://get.adobe.com/reader/>)
 - Flash Player (<https://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/>)
 - Java (<https://www.java.com>)
 - / Attention: If you use 32-bit and 64-bit browsers interchangeably, you will need to install both 32-bit and 64-bit Java in order to have the Java plug-in for both browsers. » FAQ about 64-bit Java for Windows

2. At a minimum, students must have Microsoft Office 2010 or newer or OpenOffice, or Student Office for Mac 2011 or newer. Microsoft Office is the standard office productivity software utilized by faculty, students, and staff. Microsoft Word is the standard word processing software, Microsoft Excel is the standard spreadsheet software, and Microsoft PowerPoint is the standard presentation software. Microsoft Office 365 is readily available for students. Students can either use this software package online or download and install it on their computer. To access MS Office 365, log into MyLamar and click the “Students” tab. Copying and pasting, along with attaching/uploading documents for assignment submission will also be required. If you do not have Microsoft Office or Student Office for Mac, you can check with the bookstore to see if they have any student copies.

D. LUConnect Gateway

Students are asked to obtain a Lamar Electronic Account user name and password so they can log into LUConnect. Students may get information on how to get into LUConnect through the following links: Go to <http://www.lamar.edu/> and then click on the LUConnect link on the left top corner of the screen. Follow the steps to secure your LUConnect username and password. The LUConnect portal will be used for email correspondence between the professor and the class and to access this course in Blackboard.

For questions regarding LUConnect account (setting up your account or email, username, and password issues), email us at LUConnect@lamar.edu or call us at 409-880-2222, 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday.

C. Blackboard Learning Management System

This course is asynchronous and fully online using the Blackboard (Bb) Learning Management System. Please take some time to navigate the tabs in Bb. Some live weekly sessions may be scheduled through Adobe Connect at the discretion of the instructor. Students not able to attend live sessions are expected to view the recording. All technical support questions (including password questions) for Blackboard should be addressed to Blackboard via one of the methods below:

Email: blackboard@lamar.edu

Daytime Support: 409.880.2222

Tool Free: 1.866.585.1738

More Blackboard support information can be found at

D. Adobe Connect Web Conferences

You do not need to download or purchase additional software to participate in the conference. However, a headset with microphone and Web camera are preferred equipment. You will be provided with an Adobe Connect link to access the web conferences, if needed. You will not need a username or password when logging into Adobe Connect. Please log in as a guest and enter your name and section number.

You can access Adobe Connect by going to <http://lamar.adobeconnect.com>.

E. Tk20 - Electronic Portfolio

Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required signature assessments, practicum logs, mentor evaluations and other documents are archived through the Tk20 secure portal. All signature assessments will be graded via Tk20, available at <http://lamar.tk20.com>. It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as a part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date. For assistance with purchasing or using Tk20, contact the Lamar Tk20 helpdesk at tk20@lamar.edu or call 409-880-7608.

XI. Grading and Evaluation

A. Assignments

Assignments	Points
Week 1 Assignment and Discussion Board	42
Week 2 Assignment and Discussion Board	42
Week 3 Assignment and Discussion Board	42
Week 4 Assignment and Discussion Board	42
Week 5 Assignment and Discussion Board	42

All assignments are due on the seventh day of the week, which is normally Sunday (11:59 PM CST).

C. Grading

In determining the final course grade, the following scale is used:

189 – 210 points = A

168 – 188 points = B

147 – 167 points = C (Unacceptable for graduate level credit)

Below 147 points = F

Students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA to be able to graduate.

D. Field Observation Video Submission

All students are required to submit their Leading video in the EDLD 5335 Tk20 course binder by the end of Week 4. A Lamar clinical instructor will contact each student via an email letter during Week 1 explaining how they will be available to answer questions and review video submissions to be sure all the required components are in the video in TK20.

Important Grade Policy Related to Video Submission

- a. Students who do not submit their required video to TK20 in EDLD 5335 by the end of Week 4 will have their final grade lowered by one grade level.
- b. Students who do not submit their required video to TK20 in EDLD 5335 by the end of Week 5 will receive an F and must retake the course.

E. Discussion Board

Initial post is due on Thursday each week and 2 responses to colleague's post by end of week (11:59 CST).

F. Late Work Policy

Graduate students (especially aspiring leaders) are expected to meet deadlines.

Students unable to complete an assignment by the due date must contact the professor assigned to your section prior to foreseen events or immediately following unforeseen events. A 10% deduction from the final grade will occur for each day the assignment has not been submitted. Discussion board assignments are not accepted late.

XII. Drop/Add Policy

As a student, it is your responsibility to make sure you are officially enrolled in this course. If you decide to drop the class, it is your responsibility to officially drop. Any student who stops attending class and does not officially drop, will earn an F for the course. Detailed information about critical dates can be found at <http://students.lamar.edu/registration/course-schedules.html>

XIII. Incomplete Grade Policy

At the discretion of the course professor, a grade of “I” (Incomplete) if the student may be assigned if the student is unable to complete course requirements due to medical issues, family emergencies, or life events beyond the student’s control. Procrastination or failure to plan a balance between work and program do not apply. Students must inform the professor of circumstances meeting the requirements for an Incomplete prior to the end of the course. The student will have until the end of the following semester to complete and submit all required assignments. If not completed and submitted by this deadline, the grade will automatically change to an F. Please note that any course grade that changes to an F will not be subject to a grade change. Note: Any Incompletes must be resolved prior to enrolling in either EDLD 5397 or 5398.

XIV. Course Evaluation

It is the right and the responsibility of each student to complete the course evaluation. An email will be sent by the university with directions and timelines to complete. In addition, course evaluation information and instructions are available in your Practicum Orientation Course.

XV. Additional Course Information

A. Syllabus Subject to Change

While information and assurances are provided in this course syllabus, it should be understood that content may change in keeping with new research and literature and that events beyond the control of the instructor could occur. Students will be informed of any substantive occurrences that will produce syllabus changes.

B. Academic Continuity Plan

In the event of an announced campus closure in excess of four days due to a hurricane or other disaster, students are expected to login to Lamar University’s website’s homepage <http://www.lamar.edu> for instructions about continuing courses online.

XVI. Course Outline

This course is divided into five weeks. Each week's activities include readings of current research, lectures, and discussions with your colleagues, review of key concepts studied, and an assignment for you to apply the concepts discussed in the week.

IV. Course Description This course positions the school leader as the effective manager of the organization and its operations. Multiple topics are addressed, such as safe and effective learning environments, student support services, school policies and procedures, discipline management, and fiscal issues in school management.

V. Standards

Educational Leadership Constituency Council (ELCC) Standard 3.0: A building-level education leader applies knowledge that promotes the success of every student by ensuring the management of the school organization, operation, and resources through monitoring and evaluating the school management and operational systems; efficiently using human, fiscal, and technological resources in a school environment; promoting and protecting the welfare and safety of school students and staff; developing school capacity for distributed leadership; and ensuring that teacher and organizational time is focused to support high-quality instruction and student learning.

Texas Administrative Code (TAC) Standards Required for the Principal Certificate (f.): Learner-Centered Organizational Leadership and Management. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students through leadership and management of the organization, operations, and resources for a safe, efficient, and effective learning environment.

VI. Course Outcomes

A. Other Resources

VIII. Instructional Associates

Information about your Instructional Associate (IA) will be provided through an email. Questions concerning assignments, submissions, due dates, etc. should be sent to the IA. Questions concerning Tk20 or Blackboard should be directed to Tk20 or Bb help. Questions that are not resolved by the IA will be forwarded by the IA to the professors for resolution. We will communicate directly with the IA to answer these questions. IA's routinely conduct inter-rater reliability to ensure equality of grading.

Answers to most questions regarding the Masters in Ed. Leadership, Masters in Ed. Tech., and Principal Certification-Only can be found in the Education Leadership Blackboard Orientation course in Blackboard, including LCE, certification process, practicum videos, and interactive web conferences.

IX. Course Expectations

Student conduct regulations, as found in the Lamar University-Beaumont Student Handbook, apply to all graduate students. These regulations include policies relating to academic dishonesty, plagiarism, University disciplinary code, and student rights and responsibilities. It is the responsibility of all graduate students to read the Student Handbook and to abide by all University regulations. All student work is independent and is not considered a portion of a cohort, team or other participatory activity. The student can be found at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html>.

A. Participation/Attendance

Students are expected to participate in the discussion forum and keep current with the course schedule, assignment due dates, and assigned readings.

B. Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is expected on all assignments. All work submitted must be your own work. This includes plagiarism of both published and unpublished information. Clearly cite references when using another's ideas and use the American Psychological Association (APA) 6th Ed. for referencing both in body of a paper and reference section. Plagiarism is not just copying another's work, but it also occurs if you do not cite information that is paraphrased. Take notes on a reading assignment and summarize it in your own words to demonstrate to the instructor that you understand the information. Self-plagiarism is when all work or partial work submitted in prior courses is submitted in the current course. This type of plagiarism is subject to regular plagiarism guidelines.

When in doubt, cite it.

C. Special Accommodations

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is located in the Communications building room 105. Office staff collaborate with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. For more information, visit the link <http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/>.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations. If you are registered with DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

D. Class Communication Guidelines

Graduate level discourse welcomes and respects differing opinions and perspectives. Our differences add richness to the learning experience. Each student is expected to use constructive and professional language and intention in all written / oral communication. Please refrain from sarcasm, humor, or any judgments of a personal nature toward any other individual. Debate and critique of ideas, concepts, and issues are invited.

Adhere to the same standards of behavior online that you follow in real life when writing emails or posting on the discussion board. More information on the student code of conduct can be found in the student handbook located at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html#generalprovisions>.

X. Technology Prerequisites and Systems

Students are not required to have advanced technology training or skills in order to be successful in this course. They should, however, feel confident about their ability to navigate through typical websites and to use common word processing software in order to submit written assignments. The system requirements for this course are:

A. LU Connect

Students are asked to obtain a Lamar Electronic Account user name and password so they can log into LUConnect. Students may get information on how to get into LUConnect through the following links: Go to <http://www.lamar.edu/> and then click on the LUConnect link on the left top corner of the screen. Follow the steps to secure your LUConnect username and password. The LUConnect portal will be used for email correspondence between the professor and the class and to access this course in Blackboard.

For questions regarding your myLamar account (setting up your account or email, username, and password issues), email us at myLamar@lamar.edu or call us at 409-880-2222, 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday.

B. Blackboard Learning Management System

This course is asynchronous and fully online using the Blackboard (Bb) Learning Management System. Please take some time to navigate the tabs in Bb. Some live weekly sessions may be scheduled through Adobe Connect at the discretion of the instructor. Students not able to attend live sessions are expected to view the recording. All technical support questions (including password questions) for Blackboard should be addressed to Blackboard via one of the methods below:

D. Tk20 - Electronic Portfolio

Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required signature assessments, practicum logs, mentor evaluations and other documents are archived through the Tk20 secure portal. All signature assessments will be graded via Tk20, available at <http://lamar.tk20.com>. It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as a part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date. For assistance with purchasing or using Tk20, contact the Lamar Tk20 helpdesk at tk20@lamar.edu or call 409-880-7608.

B. Grading

In determining the final course grade, the following scale is used:

450 – 500 points = A

400 – 449 points = B

350 – 399 points = C

Below 350 points = F

Students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA to be able to graduate.

C. Rubrics

Grading rubrics are included with each assignment.

D. Late Work Policy

Graduate students (especially aspiring leaders) are expected to meet deadlines.

Students unable to complete an assignment by the due date must contact the IA prior to foreseen events or immediately following unforeseen events. A 10% deduction from the final grade will occur for each day the assignment has not been submitted. If submitted beyond the next week's assignment due date, a grade of zero will be assessed.

XII. Drop/Add Policy

As a student, it is your responsibility to make sure you are officially enrolled in this course. If you decide to drop the class, it is your responsibility to officially drop. Any student who stops attending class and does not officially drop, will earn an F for the course.

XIII. Incomplete Grade Policy

The professor may assign a grade of "I" (Incomplete) if the student is unable to complete course requirements due to medical issues, family emergencies, or life events beyond the student's control. Procrastination or failure to plan a balance between work and program do not apply. Students must inform the professor of circumstances meeting the requirements for an Incomplete prior to the end of the course. The student will have until the end of the following semester to complete and submit all required assignments. If not completed and submitted by this deadline, the grade will automatically change to an F.

Note: Any Incompletes must be made up prior to enrolling in either EDLD 5397 or 5398.

XIV. Course Evaluation

It is the right and the responsibility of each student to complete the course evaluation. An email will be sent by the university with directions and timelines to complete.

XV. Additional Course InformationA. Syllabus Subject to Change

VII. Course Prerequisites

Enrolled and successfully completed EDLD 5311 and a passing grade (No Incompletes or grades below C) in the all previous courses.

VIII. Materials

A. Textbook- No required textbook for this course.

VIII. Instructional Associates

Information about your Instructional Associate (IA) will be provided through an email. Questions concerning assignments, submissions, due dates, etc. should be sent to the IA. Questions concerning Tk20 or Blackboard should be directed to Tk20 or Bb help. IA's continually conduct inter-rater reliability to ensure equality of grading. Any appeals concerning decisions made by the IA should be sent to the course professor.

IX. Course Expectations

Student conduct regulations, as found in the Lamar University-Beaumont Student Handbook, apply to all graduate students. These regulations include policies relating to academic dishonesty, plagiarism, University disciplinary code, and student rights and responsibilities. It is the responsibility of all graduate students to read the Student Handbook and to abide by all University regulations. All student work is independent and is not considered a portion of a cohort, team or other participatory activity.

A. Participation/Attendance

Students are expected to participate in the discussion forum and keep current with the course schedule, assignment due dates, and assigned readings.

B. Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is expected on all assignments. All work submitted must be your own work. This includes plagiarism of both published and unpublished information. Clearly cite references when using another's ideas and use the American Psychological Association (APA) 6th Ed. for referencing both in body of a paper and reference section. Plagiarism is not just copying another's work, but it also occurs if you do not cite information that is paraphrased. Take notes on a reading assignment and summarize it in your own words to demonstrate to the instructor that you understand the information. Self-plagiarism is when all work or partial work submitted in prior courses is submitted in the current course. This type of plagiarism is subject to regular plagiarism guidelines.

C. Special Accommodations

It is the policy of Lamar University to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal and state law, and the University's commitment to equal educational opportunities. Students should contact Lamar University's Disability Resource Center for accommodations. The Disability Resource Center offers a variety of services designed to assure qualified students with disabilities including access to the university's activities, programs, and services. To receive academic adjustments and/or accommodations, contact the DRC Director at 409.880.8347 or visit the link <http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/> to make an appointment to submit documentation of disability and to discuss disability-based academic adjustments/accommodations. Services are provided free of charge for qualified students who have provided proper documentation and completed the intake process.

D. Class Communication Guidelines

Graduate level discourse welcomes and respects differing opinions and perspectives. Our differences add richness to the learning experience. Each student is expected to use constructive and professional language and intention in all written or oral communication. Please refrain from sarcasm, humor, or any judgments of a personal nature toward any other individual. Debate and critique of ideas, concepts, and issues are invited.

X. Technology Prerequisites and Systems

Students are not required to have advanced technology training or skills in order to be successful in this course. They should, however, feel confident about their ability to navigate through typical websites and to use common word processing software in order to submit written assignments.

A. MyLamar Gateway

Students are asked to obtain a Lamar Electronic Account user name and password so they can log into MyLamar. Students may get information on how to get into MyLamar through the following links: Go to <http://www.lamar.edu/> and then click on the MyLamar link on the left top corner of the screen. Follow the steps to secure your MyLamar username and password. The MyLamar portal will be used for email correspondence between the professor and the class and to access this course in Blackboard.

For questions regarding your myLamar account (setting up your account or email, username, and password issues), email us at myLamar@lamar.edu or call us at 409-880-2222, 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday.

B. Blackboard Learning Management System

This course is asynchronous and fully online using the Blackboard (Bb) Learning Management System. Please take some time to navigate the tabs in Bb. Some live weekly sessions may be scheduled through Adobe Connect at the discretion of the instructor. Students not able to attend required live sessions are expected to view the recording. All technical support questions (including password questions) for Blackboard should be addressed to Blackboard via one of the methods below:

Email: blackboard@lamar.edu
Daytime Support: 409.880.2222
After Hours Support: 1.866.585.1738

C. Adobe Connect Web Conferences

You do not need to download or purchase additional software to participate in the conference. However, a headset with microphone and Web camera are preferred equipment. You will be provided with an Adobe Connect link to access the web conferences, if needed. You will not need a username or password when logging into Adobe Connect. Please log in as a guest and enter your name and section number.

D. Tk20 - Electronic Portfolio

Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required signature assessments, intern logs, mentor evaluations and other documents are archived through the Tk20 secure portal. All signature assessments will be graded via Tk20. It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as a part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date. For assistance with Tk20, please call 409-880-2126 for the Tk20 help desk.

Assignments: 100 points/weekly
Discussion Board: 20 points/weekly

Total: 500 points
100 points

Course Total

600 points

Grading

In determining the final course grade, the following scale is used:

540-600 points = A

480-539 points = B

420-479 points = C

Below 420 points = Unsuccessfully completed course

Total Points for course: 600

Students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA to be able to graduate.

B. Rubrics

Rubrics assigned to each assignment are included in the weekly assignment document.

C. Late Work Policy

Graduate students (especially aspiring leaders) are expected to meet deadlines. Students unable to complete an assignment by the due date must contact the instructor prior to foreseen events or immediately following unforeseen events. If professor does not grant an extension, a 10% deduction from the final grade will occur for each day the assignment has not been submitted.

XII. Drop/Add Policy

It is the student's responsibility to make sure you are officially enrolled in this course. If you decide to drop the class, it is your responsibility to officially drop. Any student who stops attending class and does not officially drop, will earn an F for the course.

XIII. Incomplete Grade Policy

A student may request a grade of "I" (Incomplete) if unable to complete course requirements due to medical issues, family emergencies, or life events beyond the student's control. Procrastination or failure to plan a balance between work and program do not apply. Students must request an Incomplete prior to the end of the course. The student will have until the end of the following semester to complete and submit all required assignments. If not completed and submitted by this deadline, the grade will automatically change to an F. Note: Any Incompletes must be made up prior to enrolling in either EDLD 5397 or 5398.

XIV. Course Evaluation

It is the right and the responsibility of each student to complete the course evaluation. An email will be sent by the university with directions and timelines to complete.

XV. Additional Course Information

A. Syllabus Subject to Change

While information and assurances are provided in this course syllabus, it should be understood that content may change in keeping with new research and literature and that events beyond the control of the instructor could occur. Students will be informed of any substantive occurrences that will produce syllabus changes.

B. Academic Continuity Plan

In the event of an announced campus closure in excess of four days due to a hurricane or other disaster, students are expected to login to Lamar University's website's homepage <http://www.lamar.edu> for instructions about continuing courses online.

SYLLABUS

The CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK of the Lamar University undergraduate and graduate educator preparation programs illuminates the vision of the faculty. The programs prepare educators for a changing world by requiring as outcomes general education, pedagogical content knowledge, content proficiency, pedagogical strategies, communication skills, values, and analytical abilities. Critical thinking is required for responding to the diverse needs of P-12 students in myriad and changing settings. Lamar University educator preparation candidates also develop dispositions and habits of mind needed for “self-learning” and lifelong learning”, that will equip them to encounter problems and change with confidence.

IV. Course Description

This course emphasizes techniques for improving instruction and learning through the application of the research on effective schools and on models of instruction. Topics include leadership related to curriculum, instruction, supervision, meeting the need of diverse students, and theories and methods for adult learning and professional development. The principal as the leader of learning involves such tasks as teacher evaluation, supervision, mentoring, and effective communication.

V. Standards

ELCC Standards

ELCC Standard 1.3 Candidates understand and can promote continual and sustainable school improvement.

ELCC Standard 2.1 Candidates understand and can sustain a school culture and instructional program conducive to student learning through collaboration, trust, and a personalized learning environment with high expectations for students.

ELCC Standard 2.2 Candidates understand and can create and evaluate comprehensive, rigorous, and coherent curricular and instructional school program.

ELCC Standard 2.3 Candidates understand and can develop and supervise the instructional capacity of school staff.

ELCC Standard 2.4 Candidates understand and can promote the most effective and appropriate technologies to support teaching and learning in a school-level environment.

Texas State Board for Education Certification (SBEC) Principal Standards (2016)

19 TAC Chapter 241, Principal Certificate, §241.15 Standards Required for the Principal Certificate

(b) School Culture. The principal:

- (1) ensures that a positive, collaborative, and collegial school culture facilitates and enhances the implementation of campus initiatives and the achievement of campus goals;
- (2) uses emerging issues, recent research, demographic data, knowledge of systems, campus climate inventories, student learning data, and other information to collaboratively develop a shared campus vision;
- (3) facilitates the collaborative development of a plan in which objectives and strategies to implement the campus vision are clearly articulated;
- (4) supports the implementation of the campus vision by aligning financial, human, and material resources;

(5) establishes processes to assess and modify the plan of implementation to ensure achievement of the campus vision;

(6) acknowledges, recognizes, and celebrates the contributions of students, staff, parents, and community members toward the realization of the campus vision;

(7) models and promotes the continuous and appropriate development of all learners, including faculty and staff, in the campus community;

(8) uses strategies to ensure the development of collegial relationships and effective collaboration of campus staff;

(9) develops and uses effective conflict-management and consensus-building skills;

(10) establishes and communicates consistent expectations for staff and students, providing supportive feedback to ensure a positive campus environment;

(11) implements effective strategies to systematically gather input from all campus stakeholders, supporting innovative thinking and an inclusive culture;

(12) creates an atmosphere of safety that encourages the social, emotional, and physical well-being of staff and students; and

(13) ensures that parents and other members of the community are an integral part of the campus culture.

(c) Leading Learning. The principal:

(1) creates a campus culture that sets high expectations, promotes learning, and provides intellectual stimulation for self, students, and staff;

(2) prioritizes instruction and student achievement by understanding, sharing, and promoting a clear definition of high-quality instruction based on best practices from recent research;

(3) routinely monitors and improves instruction by visiting classrooms, engaging in formative, evidence-based appraisal processes and conferences with teachers, and attending grade or team meetings;

(4) facilitates the use of sound research-based practice in the development and implementation of campus curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular programs to fulfill academic, developmental, social, and cultural needs;

(5) facilitates campus participation in collaborative school district planning, implementation, monitoring, and curriculum revision to ensure appropriate scope, sequence, content, and alignment;

(6) implements a rigorous curriculum aligned with state standards, including college and career readiness standards;

(7) analyzes the curriculum to ensure that teachers align content across grades and that curricular scopes and sequences meet the particular needs of their diverse student populations;

(8) monitors and ensures staff uses multiple forms of student data to inform instruction and intervention decisions to maximize instructional effectiveness and student achievement;

(9) ensures that effective instruction maximizes growth of individual students and student groups, supports equity, and eliminates the achievement gap;

(10) ensures staff have the capacity and time to collaboratively and individually use classroom formative and summative assessment data to inform effective instructional practices and interventions; and

(11) facilitates the use and integration of technology, telecommunications, and information systems that enhance learning.

(d) Human Capital. The principal:

(1) invests and manages time to prioritize the development, support, and supervision of the staff to enhance student outcomes;

(2) ensures all staff have clear expectations that guide them and by which they are assessed, including the use of and familiarity with evidence-based appraisal rubrics, where applicable;

(3) uses data from multiple points of the year to complete accurate appraisals of all staff, using evidence from regular observations, student data, and other sources to evaluate the effectiveness of teachers and staff;

(4) coaches and develops educators by conducting conferences, giving individualized feedback, and supporting individualized professional growth opportunities;

(5) facilitates the campus's professional learning community to review data, processes, and policies in order to improve teaching and learning in the school;

(6) creates opportunities for effective staff to take on a variety of leadership roles and appropriately delegates responsibilities to staff and administrators on the leadership team;

(7) collaboratively develops, implements, and revises a comprehensive and on-going plan for professional development of campus staff that addresses staff needs based on staff appraisal trends, goals, and student information;

(8) ensures the effective implementation of a continuum of professional development by the appropriate allocation of time, funding, and other needed resources;

VI. Course Outcomes

A. Learning Outcomes

- Conducts interviews with SBMT to determine needs of continuous improvement plan
- Analyzes local district policy to determine professional development goals and outcomes
- Conducts school climate survey to gather data for professional development plan
- Writes an instructional leadership professional development plan that addresses priorities for continuous school improvement, instructional improvement, school culture, technology uses in teaching and learning, job-embedded professional development.

B. Skill/Performance Outcomes

- Writes in PD plan goals and strategies to engage faculty and others in developing, implementing, and monitoring initiatives to foster a school culture that supports teaching and learning.

VIII. Instructional Associates

Each course section has an assigned instructional associate who will be your primary point of contact and provide support throughout the course. Information regarding your assigned Instructional Associate will be provided through an e-mail or course announcement. Your IA will provide a welcome and introductory letter with his/her contact information. Course activities, assignments, questions, and correspondence are to be emailed to your assigned IA first. If you need further assistance, please contact the professor assigned to your section.

IX. Course Expectations

Students are expected to review the course syllabus prior to completing any course activity. Students are expected to participate in the discussion forum and keep current with the course schedule, assignment due dates, and assigned readings. Student work is expected to be submitted in the required format for each assignment, follow directions and rubrics in order to receive maximum points. When working in groups, all members of the group are expected to fully participate in the activity. It is the student's responsibility to maintain appropriate equipment and access to the online environment in order to fully participate in the class.

Student conduct regulations, as found in the Lamar University Student Handbook, apply to all graduate students. These regulations include policies relating to academic dishonesty, plagiarism, university disciplinary code, and student rights and responsibilities. It is the responsibility of all graduate students to read the Student Handbook and to abide by all university regulations. The student can be found at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html>.

A. Participation/Attendance

Students are expected to log into the current course on the first day of the first week of the session (normally a Monday). Students will be dropped, without refund, after the first week for non-participations.

B. Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is expected on all assignments. All work submitted must be your own work. This includes plagiarism of both published and unpublished information. Clearly cite references when using another's ideas and use the American Psychological Association (APA) 6th Ed. for referencing both in body of a paper and reference section. Plagiarism is not just copying another's work, but it also occurs if you do not cite information that is paraphrased.

We understand that some student work is independent and some is collaborative. Please remember that even in collaborative assignments, students must submit original work. This means that two or more students may not submit assignments that are more than 15% plagiarized. It is the responsibility of each student to understand what constitutes plagiarism. Students will be held responsible for any incidences of plagiarism, accidental or not.

University policy on academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, cheating, and collusion, may be found in the Student Handbook published online at www.lamar.edu/student-handbook.

C. Special Accommodations

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is located in the Communications building room 105. Office staff collaborates with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. For more information, visit the link <http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/>.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations. If you are registered with DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

D. Class Communication Guidelines

Graduate level discourse welcomes and respects differing opinions and perspectives. Our differences add richness to the learning experience. Each student is expected to use constructive and professional language and intention in all written / oral communication. Please refrain from sarcasm, humor, or any judgments of a personal nature toward any other individual. Debate and critique of ideas, concepts, and issues are invited.

Adhere to the same standards of behavior online that you follow in real life when writing emails or posting on the discussion board. More information on the student code of conduct can be found in the student handbook located at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html#generalprovisions>.

X. Technology Prerequisites

In this course, students should feel confident about their ability to navigate through typical websites and to use common word processing software in order to submit written assignments.

You need to be able to:

- Navigate websites, including downloading and reading files from them.

- Download and install software or plug-ins such as Adobe Reader, Window Media Player or Flash.
- Use e-mail, including attaching and downloading documents/files from e-mail.
- Save files in commonly used word processing formats (.doc, .docx, .rtf).
- Copy and paste text and other items in computer documents.
- Save and retrieve documents and files on your computer.
- Locate information on the Internet using search engines.
- Locate information in the library using the online catalog.

The system requirements for this course are:

A. Computer/Technology Requirements

1. Students will need regular access to a computer with a broadband Internet connection. The minimum computer requirements are:

- Any current Flash-compliant browser (recent versions of Firefox or Safari)
- 4 GB of RAM, 8 GB or more preferred
 - *Please note that Blackboard may not support Internet Explorer or Chrome.
- Broadband connection (cable modem, DSL, or other high speed) required – courses are heavily video intensive
- Video display capable of high-color 16-bit display – 1024 x 768 or higher resolution
- A sound card and speakers or headphones
- Current anti-virus software must be installed and kept up to date.
- Students will need some additional free software for enhanced web browsing. Be certain to download the free versions of the software. Most home computers purchased within the last 3-4 years meet or surpass these requirements.
 - Use Firefox (<https://www.mozilla.org/en-US/firefox/new>)
 - Adobe Reader (<https://get.adobe.com/reader/>)
 - Flash Player (<https://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/>)
 - Java (<https://www.java.com>)
 - Attention: If you use 32-bit and 64-bit browsers interchangeably, you will need to install both 32-bit and 64-bit Java in order to have the Java plug-in for both browsers. » FAQ about 64-bit Java for Windows

2. At a minimum, students must have Microsoft Office 2010 or newer or OpenOffice, or Student Office for Mac 2011 or newer. Microsoft Office is the standard office productivity software utilized by faculty, students, and staff. Microsoft Word is the standard word processing software, Microsoft Excel is the standard spreadsheet software, and Microsoft PowerPoint is the standard presentation software.

Microsoft Office 365 is readily available for students. Students can either use this software package online or download and install it on their computer. To access MS Office 365, log into LUConnect and click the “Students” tab.

Copying and pasting, along with attaching/uploading documents for assignment submission will also be required. If you do not have Microsoft Office or Student Office for Mac, you can check with the bookstore to see if they have any student copies.

D. LUConnect Gateway

Students are asked to obtain a Lamar Electronic Account user name and password so they can log into LUConnect. Students may get information on how to get into LUConnect through the following links: Go to <http://www.lamar.edu/> and then click on the LUConnect link on the left top corner of the screen. Follow the steps to secure your LUConnect username and password. The LUConnect portal will be used for email correspondence between the professor and the class and to access this course in Blackboard.

For questions regarding your LUConnect account (setting up your account or email, username, and password issues), email us at <http://luconnect.lamar.edu> or call us at 409-880-2222, 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday.

C. Blackboard Learning Management System

This course is asynchronous and fully online using the Blackboard (Bb) Learning Management System. Please take some time to navigate the tabs in Bb. Some live weekly sessions may be scheduled through Adobe Connect at the discretion of the instructor. Students not able to attend live sessions are expected to view the recording. All technical support questions (including password questions) for Blackboard should be addressed to Blackboard via one of the methods below:

Email: blackboard@lamar.edu

Daytime Support: 409.880.2222

Toll Free: 1.866.585.1738

More Blackboard support information can be found at

D. Adobe Connect Web Conferences

You do not need to download or purchase additional software to participate in the conference. However, a headset with microphone and Web camera are preferred equipment. You will be provided with an Adobe Connect link to access the web conferences, if needed. You will not need a username or password when logging into Adobe Connect. Please log in as a guest and enter your name and section number.

You can access Adobe Connect by going to <http://lamar.adobeconnect.com>.

E. Tk20 - Electronic Portfolio

Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required signature assessments, practicum logs, mentor evaluations and other documents are archived through the Tk20 secure portal. All signature assessments will be graded via Tk20, available at <http://lamar.tk20.com>. It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as a part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date. For assistance with purchasing or using Tk20, contact the Lamar Tk20 helpdesk at tk20@lamar.edu or call 409-880-7608.

XI. Grading and Evaluation

A. Schedule of Classes

Spring AP2 2018 February 26 – April 1

Week 1 – Monday February 26 – Sunday, March 4

Week 2 – Monday March 5 – Sunday, March 11

Week 3 – Monday March 12 – Sunday, March 18

Week 4 – Monday March 19 – Sunday, March 25

Week 5 – Monday March 26 – Sunday, April 1

B. Assignments

Assignments	Points
Week 1 Assignment and Discussion Board	30
Week 2 Assignment and Discussion Board	30
Week 3 Assignment and Discussion Board	50
Week 4 Assignment and Discussion Board	30
Week 5 Assignment and Discussion Board	110
Total Points for course	250

All assignments are due on the seventh day of the week, which is normally Sunday (11:59 PM CST).

C. Grading

In determining the final course grade, the following scale is used:

226 – 250 points = A

201 – 225 points = B

176 – 200 points = C (Unacceptable for graduate level credit)

Below 176 points = F

Students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA to be able to graduate.

D. Discussion Board

Initial post is due on Thursday each week and 2 responses to colleague's post by end of Sunday night (11:59 CST).

- E. Field Observation Video Submission – All students are required to submit their Participating video in their Tk20 course binder. A Lamar Faculty Field Supervisor will contact each student via an email letter during Week 2 explaining how they will be available to answer questions and review video submissions to be sure all the required components are in the video in TK20.

Instructions: Students in this course (EDLD 5352) upload your Participating video into your My Media (using Kaltura). You will use the Video Uploading Instructions (found under "For All Students") in the Practicum Orientation Course.

Important Grade Policy Related to Video Submission

- 1. Students who do not submit their required video to TK20 in EDLD 5352 by the end of Week 4 will have their final grade lowered by one grade level.
- 2. Students who do not submit their required video to TK20 in EDLD 5352 by the end of Week 5 will receive an F and must retake the course.

F. Late Work Policy for Course Work

Graduate students (especially aspiring leaders) are expected to meet deadlines. Students unable to complete an assignment by the due date must contact the professor assigned to your section prior to foreseen events or immediately following unforeseen events. A 10% deduction from the final grade will occur for each day the assignment has not been submitted. Discussion board assignments are not accepted late.

XII. Drop/Add Policy

As a student, it is your responsibility to make sure you are officially enrolled in this course. If you decide to drop the class, it is your responsibility to officially drop. Any student who stops attending class and does not officially drop, will earn an F for the course. Detailed information about critical dates can be found at <http://students.lamar.edu/registration/course-schedules.html>

XIII. Incomplete Grade Policy

At the discretion of the course professor, a grade of “I” (Incomplete) may be assigned if the student is unable to complete course requirements due to medical issues, family emergencies, or life events beyond the student’s control. Procrastination or failure to plan a balance between work and program do not apply. Students must inform the professor of circumstances meeting the requirements for an Incomplete prior to the end of the course. The student will have until the end of the following semester to complete and submit all required assignments. If not completed and submitted by this deadline, the grade will automatically change to an F. Please note that any course grade that changes to an F will not be subject to a grade change. Note: Any Incompletes must be resolved prior to enrolling in either EDLD 5397 or 5398.

XIV. Course Evaluation

It is the right and the responsibility of each student to complete the course evaluation. An email will be sent by the university with directions and timelines to complete. In addition, course evaluation information and instructions are available in your Practicum Orientation Course.

XV. Additional Course Information

A. Syllabus Subject to Change

While information and assurances are provided in this course syllabus, it should be understood that content may change in keeping with new research and literature and that events beyond the control of the instructor could occur. Students will be informed of any substantive occurrences that will produce syllabus changes.

B. Academic Continuity Plan

In the event of an announced campus closure in excess of four days due to a hurricane or other disaster, students are expected to login to Lamar University’s website’s homepage <http://www.lamar.edu> for instructions about continuing courses online

Educator Preparation Standards Addressed

This course is aligned with both state and national standards, and the course content reflects these standards. State accreditation is based on program standards adopted by the State Board of Education Certification (SBEC). National accreditation is based on program standards of the Council for Accreditation for Educator Preparation (CAEP) and its specialized professional associations (SPA). The SPA for administrator preparation programs is the Educational Leadership Constituency Council (ELCC). Their standards are aligned with the SBEC standards for principals. These standards serve as the foundation for the courses within the School Administration program and help assure that this course of study is authoritative and represents best practice within the field. The SPA for the Educational Technology Leadership program is the International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE).

You should become familiar with the standards that guide your learning and program of study. SBEC Standards are accessible on the College of Education and Human Development website: <http://dept.lamar.edu/education/standards/st.html>. ELCC standards are accessible at http://www.npbea.org/ELCC/ELCC standards. Course Schedule

Assignments are listed below for each of the five weeks. It is very important that you submit the assignments by the due date AND submit in the correct locations. Some assignments will need to be submitted twice – once in Blackboard (Bb) and a second submission in the Tk20 5398 Course Binder. The following documents and uploads will be submitted in the Tk20 5398 Course Binder.

1. Campus Mentor Information v.2
2. 5398 Interactive Web Conference Reflection
3. Final Practicum Log
4. Comprehensive Exam Part 1
5. Comprehensive Exam Part 2
6. Comprehensive Exam Part 3
7. Comprehensive Exam Part 4
8. Action Research (Masters) or School Community Project (Certification-only)

Students may Submit their Tk20 5398 Course Binder once all items have been completed and uploaded. Due dates and submission requirements are listed below.

Week 1 Assignments: (Due at 11:59 p.m. on the seventh day of Week 1)

The purpose of much of this week's assignment is to allow each student time to plan and begin work for submitting all documentation needed to complete the degree or certification program.

During week 1, you will:

1. Submit the EDLD Campus Mentor Information artifact in Tk20. DO NOT UPDATE an older artifact, it MUST be a NEW artifact. Go to Tk20 and click on Artifacts. Choose the EDLD Campus Mentor Information V2 artifact from the drop-down menu. Complete the information and Save. You do NOT need to attach to anything. It is VERY IMPORTANT that you submit and verify this by the end of Week 1.
2. Post your information addressing the Week 1 Discussion prompt and post responses to at least two other students' postings. For optimal learning, read all postings
3. Submit the Comprehensive Exam Part 1 to Bb. Submit it also to the Tk20 5398 Course Binder when you receive it in Week 2. NOTE: Part 1 has four sections, be sure to complete all four sections of the Part 1 exam.
4. (Masters Students) Work on the Action Research Report due in Week 2. The length of the report may vary according to the need to cover relevant information in each of the sections. Typical reports are 7-10 pages.
(Principal Certification-Only students) Work on completion of the School / Community Project Plan due in Week 2.
5. Submit the Practicum Log to Bb and the Tk20 5398 Course Binder when you receive it in Week 2, if completed
6. Review all Tk20 Practicum Portfolio tabs to ensure completion of all required artifacts, i.e., interactive web conferences, observation videos, log, etc. It will not submit with empty place holders.
7. Check your Official grades in Banner to verify no "I" or "F" grades remain on your transcript.

Note: Each student will need to plan ahead for some assignments in later weeks. These include meeting with your site mentor, signing up for your final practicum coach web conference, and passing the LCE. Finally, take the LCE (in the LCE Blackboard course) and watch the reviews as many times as you need to in order to attain a passing score of 80% or higher. This will be due at the end of Week 5.

Week 1 Discussion / Sharing Learning with Others

Post an updated section of your vita listing the Principal Intern position and post informative reactions to at least two other students' postings.

Week 2 Assignments: (Due at 11:59 p.m. on the seventh day of Week 2)

1. (Masters students) Submit the Action Research Project Report in Bb and the Tk20 5398 Course Binder.
(Certification-Only students) Submit the School/Community Project Plan in Bb and the Tk20 5398 Course Binder.
2. Check all tabs in your Tk20 5398 Course Binder. Make sure you have submitted items to every tab. If you have not completed the log or final web observation conference yet, please upload as soon as completed in later weeks. No points will be deducted for being late but simply helpful for the Field Supervisors reviewing portfolios to begin as soon as possible.
3. Continue work on the Comprehensive Exam.

Week 2 Discussion / Sharing Learning with Others

Post your list of school improvement recommendations, read all other student recommendations, and post informative reactions to at least two other postings.

Week 3 Assignments: (Due at 11:59 p.m. on the seventh day of Week 3)

1. Submit the Practicum Log in Bb and in the Tk20 5398 Course Binder.
2. Submit Part 2 of the Comprehensive Exam to Bb and Tk20 5398 Course Binder.
3. Attend your final practicum web conference and submit a reflection in Bb and upload to your Tk20 5398 Course Binder under the corresponding tab. The field supervisor will verify your attendance in Tk20.

Week 3 Discussion / Sharing Learning with Others

Post your Letter of Application for a desired position, read all other letters, and post constructive comments to at least two other postings.

Week 4 Assignments: (Due at 11:59 p.m. on the seventh day of Week 4)

1. Submit Part 3 of the Comprehensive Exam to Bb and Tk20 5398 Course Binder.
2. Check with your site mentor and make sure he/she completed the PCPSE/Disposition Survey. Meet with your mentor and discuss the ratings and comments of the evaluation.
This is your final internship/practicum evaluation and must be submitted.

Week 4 Discussion / Sharing Learning with Others

Post examples of key learnings or "pearls of wisdom" from your internship/practicum experience, review all other postings, and post informative reactions to at least two other students' postings.

Week 5 Assignments: (Due at 11:59 p.m. on the seventh day of Week)

1. Submit Part 4 of the Comprehensive Exam to Bb and Tk20 5398 Course Binder.
2. Have a recorded Passing Score of at least 80% on the LCE. Scores will be verified through the LCE course managed by Ms. Kim Elizondo.

3. For students seeking a Texas Principal Certificate, submit the Application (in Tk20) to take the State exam as soon as possible. It is highly recommended that you take the State Exam while the information is fresh in your mind.
<https://education.lamar.edu/educational-leadership/graduate-programs/certification-checklist.html>
4. For Masters students graduating, complete the graduation application. It will be sent to you at your Lamar email address and posted in your Banner account. Your certification application can only be accepted after your degree is conferred.
5. For Principal Certification-Only students, your grade should post approximately two weeks after the course ends. Then you may apply for certification through Tk20.

Week 5 Discussion / Sharing Learning with Others

Post recommendations for improvements to the internship/practicum experience.

Note: All assignments must be submitted with a passing score in order to receive a passing grade for the course. A course grade less than “C” is unacceptable for credit in the Lamar University Master’s Program and will require the student to retake the course. Students must maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA to remain in the program and/or graduate. Check your transcript in Banner to ensure there are no “Incompletes” or “F’s” and an acceptable GPA.

Classroom Management Policies:

Academic Honesty Student conduct regulations, as found in the Lamar University-Beaumont Student Handbook, apply to all graduate students. These regulations include policies relating to academic dishonesty, plagiarism, University disciplinary code, and student rights and responsibilities. It is the responsibility of all graduate students to read the Student Handbook and to abide by all University regulations. All student work is independent and is not considered a portion of a cohort, team or other participatory activity.

Sexual Harassment In accordance with administrative policy, sexual harassment is reprehensible and will not be tolerated by the university. Behavior must conform to university policy.

Disability Accommodation Lamar University provides reasonable accommodations for all qualified individuals with disabilities in accordance with federal, state, and local guidelines affording equal educational opportunity. Remember this is a distance learning class, and the format is different from traditional face-to-face instruction. It is the student’s responsibility to register with Lamar’s Disability Support Services if needed, so contact your academic advisor.

Tk20 Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required key assessments, projects, work samples, applications for field experiences, professional testing and certification recommendations will be collected, processed or archived through the Tk20 secure portal. It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date. [<http://lamar.tk20.com>]

Late Work There is a 10% deduction for every day that work is late up to 50% of total grade. Discussion posts, however, must be posted by the due date or no points are awarded.

Class Participation Participating in the discussion forum is expected as a required weekly assignment. Students are expected to keep current with the course schedule and all assignment due dates... All work submitted must be your own work. Clearly cite references using the American Psychological Association (APA) Publication Manual. Students are expected to spend a minimum of eight (8) hours per week on preparation for this course.

Drop Drops after the course begins may carry financial penalty in that reimbursement may not be possible. See posted drop dates.

Academic Continuity Plan In the event of an announced campus closure in excess of four days due to a hurricane or other disaster, students are expected to login to Lamar University’s website’s homepage www.lamar.edu for instructions about continuing courses remotely.

General Assessment Criteria for All Student Work The professor and IA's ask the following questions in assessing student work in this course:

- How well does the student work address the criteria in the rubric?
- Was the student work completed in a timely manner?
- Does the student work exhibit intellectual honesty and commitment?
- Does the work exhibit professional masters' level writing?

- Understand the holdings of major Landmark Decisions and apply knowledge of these holdings to school circumstances and environment. (ELCC: 5.3, 6.2,6.3; TExES/SBEC: b1, b5, e8; TEA: Competency 003, 008, 009)

B. Skill/Performance Outcomes

- Develop and implement sound policies regarding the identification of at-risk students and accommodation of students with special needs. (ELCC: 2.1, 2.4, 3.1; TExES/SBEC: f6,e6, b1; TEA: 001,004, 008)
- Apply relevant law and legal guidelines to student and employee management situations involving expression rights, search and seizure, and due process rights. (ELCC: 6.2, 6.3; TExES/SBEC: b1,b5,e8; TEA: Competency 008, 009)
- Use knowledge of educator liability risks to implement sound policy and procedures at the campus level. (ELCC: 6.3, TExES/SBEC: e8; TEA: Competency 009.)
- Respond to student discipline scenarios within the parameters of legal guidelines and landmark holdings. (ELCC: 6.3, TExES/SBEC: b1, b5, e8; TEA Competency 008, 009.)

VII. Course Prerequisites

- Masters students – EDLD 5311 and 5301. Cert-only students – EDLD 5311.

VIII. Materials

- Textbook—Walsh, Jim; Kemerer, Frank; Maniotis, Laurie. (2014). The Educator's Guide to Texas School Law (Eighth ed.). Austin, Texas: University of Texas Press.
- On-Line Version of Textbook should be acquired. All reading assignments are based on pagination in the on-line version of the text. The on-line version of the text can be purchased through “Google Play” and will become available immediately upon purchase. The purchase price on-line varies depending on when it is purchased, but the price is usually in the range of $20 plus or minus a few dollars. In order to purchase the book, go to “Google Play”. Initiate a search for “educator’s guide to Texas school law”. You will be taken to the on-line version of the book and will be given the option to purchase.

- C. All of your weekly reading assignments with the exception of Week Two will come from your on-line textbook. During Week Two, you will have a reading assignment from your on-line textbook and a periodical article. The article will be provided for you.
- D. You will be expected to view one or more video presentations during each week of the course. These presentations are included in the Blackboard Weekly Course Presentation.

VIII. Instructional Associates & Weekly Overviews

Information about your Instructional Associate (IA) will be provided through the course announcement page in Blackboard and through the Weekly Overview. You are responsible for reading the Weekly Overview carefully each week and you are responsible for the information provided in each Overview. Questions concerning assignments, submissions, due dates, etc. should be sent to the IA. Questions concerning Tk20 or Blackboard should be directed to Tk20 or Bb help. IA's routinely conduct inter-rater reliability to ensure equality of grading.

IX. Course Expectations

Student conduct regulations, as found in the Lamar University-Beaumont Student Handbook, apply to all graduate students. These regulations include policies relating to academic dishonesty, plagiarism, University disciplinary code, and student rights and responsibilities. It is the responsibility of all graduate students to read the Student Handbook and to abide by all University regulations. All student work is independent and is not considered a portion of a cohort, team or other participatory activity. The student handbook can be found at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html>.

A. Participation/Attendance

Students are expected to participate in the discussion forum and keep current with the course schedule, assignment due dates, and assigned readings.

B. Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is expected on all assignments. All work submitted must be your own work. This expectation addresses plagiarism of both published and unpublished information. Clearly cite references when using another's ideas and use the American Psychological Association (APA) 6th Ed. for referencing both in the body of a paper and reference section. Plagiarism is not just copying another's work, but it also occurs if you do not cite information that is paraphrased. Take notes on a reading assignment and summarize it in your own words to demonstrate to the instructor that you understand the information.

Self-plagiarism occurs when all work or partial work submitted in prior courses is submitted in the current course. This type of plagiarism is subject to regular plagiarism guidelines.

C. Special Accommodations

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is located in the Communications building room 105. Office staff will collaborate with students who have disabilities in order to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. For more information, visit the link <http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/>.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations. If you are registered with DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

D. Class Communication Guidelines

Graduate level discourse welcomes and respects differing opinions and perspectives. Our differences add richness to the learning experience. Each student is expected to use constructive and professional language and intention in all written / oral communication. Please refrain from sarcasm, humor, or any judgments of a personal nature toward any other individual. Debate and critique of ideas, concepts, and issues are invited.

Adhere to the same standards of behavior online that you follow in real life when writing emails or posting on the discussion board. More information on the student code of conduct can be found in the student handbook located at <http://students.lamar.edu/student-handbook.html#generalprovisions>.

X. Technology Prerequisites and Systems

Students are not required to have advanced technology training or skills in order to be successful in this course. They should, however, feel confident about their ability to navigate through typical websites and to use common word processing software in order to submit written assignments. The system requirements for this course are:

A. MyLamar Gateway

Students are asked to obtain a Lamar Electronic Account user name and password so they can log into MyLamar. Students may get information on how to get into MyLamar through the following links: Go to <http://www.lamar.edu/> and then click on the MyLamar link on the left top corner of the screen. Follow the steps to secure your MyLamar username and password. The MyLamar portal will be used for email correspondence between the professor and the class and to access this course in Blackboard.

For questions regarding your myLamar account (setting up your account or email, username, and password issues), email us at myLamar@lamar.edu or call us at 409-880-2222, 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday.

B. Blackboard Learning Management System

This course is asynchronous and fully online using the Blackboard (Bb) Learning Management System. Please take some time to navigate the tabs in Bb. Some live weekly sessions may be scheduled through Adobe Connect at the discretion of the instructor. Students not able to attend live sessions are expected to view the recording. All technical support questions (including password questions) for Blackboard should be addressed to Blackboard via one of the methods below:

Email: blackboard@lamar.edu

Daytime Support: 409.880.2222

After Hours Support: 1.866.585.1738

More Blackboard support information can be found at <http://luonline.lamar.edu/blackboard-support/>.

C. Adobe Connect Web Conferences

You do not need to download or purchase additional software to participate in the conference. However, a headset with microphone and Web camera are preferred equipment. You will be provided with an Adobe Connect link to access the web conferences, if needed. You will not need a username or password when logging into Adobe Connect. Please log in as a guest and enter your name and section number.

You can access Adobe Connect by going to <http://lamar.adobeconnect.com>.

D. Tk20 - Electronic Portfolio

Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required signature assessments, practicum logs, mentor evaluations and other documents are archived through the Tk20 secure portal. All signature assessments will be graded via Tk20, available at <http://lamar.tk20.com>. It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as a part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date. For assistance with purchasing or using Tk20, contact the Lamar Tk20 helpdesk at tk20@lamar.edu or call 409-880-7608.

XI. Grading and Evaluation

A. Assignments:

Assignments	Points
Weekly Discussion (20 points per week)	100
Week One A 20 Points	20
Week One B 20 Points	20
Week Two Assignment	40
Week Three Assignment	40
Mid-Term Exam—Administered at the end of Week Three	100
Week Four Assignment	40
Week Five Assignment	40
Final Exam—Administered at the end of Week Five	100
Total Points for course	500

All assignments are due on the seventh day of the week, which is Sunday (11:59 PM CST).

E. Grading

In determining the final course grade, the following scale is used:

450 – 500 points = A

400 – 449 points = B

350 – 399 points = C

Below 350 points = F

Students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA to be able to graduate.

F. Rubrics

A rubric is provided in the Blackboard Course for each assignment and each discussion prompt. The rubric is provided as a guide to assist you in addressing critical points in each discussion and/or assignment. Please read each rubric carefully before completing the discussion posting or the assignment.

G. Late Work Policy

Graduate students (especially aspiring leaders) are expected to meet deadlines. Students who may be unable to complete an assignment by the due date must contact the IA prior to foreseen events or immediately following unforeseen events. A 10% deduction from the final grade will occur for each day the assignment has not been submitted.

XII. Drop/Add Policy

As a student, it is your responsibility to make sure you are officially enrolled in this course. If you decide to drop the class, it is your responsibility to officially drop. Any student who stops attending class and does not officially drop, will earn an F for the course.

XIII. Incomplete Grade Policy

The professor may assign a grade of “I” (Incomplete) if the student is unable to complete course requirements due to medical issues, family emergencies, or life events beyond the student’s control. Procrastination or failure to plan a balance between work and program do not apply. Students must inform the professor of circumstances meeting the requirements for an Incomplete prior to the end of the course. The section professor MAY, at his/her discretion, agree to issue a grade of incomplete if the professor views the circumstances as being beyond the student’s control. However, the decision to grant an “I” or not grant an “I” rests with the appropriate section professor. If an “I” is issued, the student will have until the end of the following semester to complete and submit all required assignments. If all course requirements are not completed and submitted by this deadline, the grade will automatically change to an F. Note: Any Incompletes must be made up prior to enrolling in either EDLD 5397 or 5398.

XIV. Course Evaluation

It is the right and the responsibility of each student to complete the course evaluation. An email will be sent by the university with directions and timelines to complete.

XV. Additional Course Information

A. Syllabus Subject to Change

While information and assurances are provided in this course syllabus, it should be understood that content may change in keeping with new research and literature and that events beyond the control of the instructor could occur. Students will be informed of any substantive occurrences that will produce syllabus changes.

B. Academic Continuity Plan

In the event of an announced campus closure in excess of four days due to a hurricane or other disaster, students are expected to login to Lamar University's website's homepage <http://www.lamar.edu> for instructions about continuing courses online.

LAMAR UNIVERSITY

Course Syllabus

College of Education and Human Development
"Preparing Educators for a Changing World"

Department of Educational Leadership and Technology
EDLD 5397 Internship for Supervision

The CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK of the Lamar University Educator Preparation Program illuminates the vision of the faculty as they are engaged in teaching, research and service. The undergraduate and graduate programs utilize a variety of delivery systems to prepare educators and leaders for a changing world by requiring them to demonstrate core knowledge, content proficiency, pedagogical techniques and strategies, communication and leadership skills, technological and analytical abilities, and professional dispositions. Lamar University educator preparation candidates develop habits of mind needed for "lifelong learning" and respond to the ever changing diverse needs of EC-12 students and the schools that serve them.

Department: Educational Leadership
P.O. Box 10034
Beaumont, TX 77710
Course Number: EDLD 5397 (3 credit hours)
Course Title: Practicum/Internship for Supervision

Professor:

Dr. Daryl Ann Borel
Clinical Instructor
Phone: 409. 880.7709 (office)
Email: darylann.borel@lamar.edu

Course Description

Practicum/Internship for Supervision is the first of two courses on the practicum. The course is designed to assess progress, revise plans (if appropriate), and prepare for the second half of the 18-month practicum under the joint supervision of a school district mentor and faculty of Lamar University.

The course is required for all students in the Masters of School Administration and Masters of Educational Technology at the halfway point (7th course) in the degree program.

EDLD 5397 Practicum/Internship for Supervision

Assignments include:

- NETS-A Assessments
- APA and IRB Guidelines
- APA Activity
- Review of the Literature Synthesis Matrix
- Action Research Project Analysis, Action Research Report, and Dissemination Plan
- Overall Practicum Analysis and guidelines for Final Report
- In-Basket Simulations
- Lamar University Field Supervisor Web Conference and Reflection
- LCE First Attempt
- TK20 Course Binder Submissions

Prerequisites

Completion of EDLD 5311, EDLD 5301, and the four additional core courses in your program of study.

Professor and Instructional Associate

Your Professor(s) and Instructional Associate (IA) will contact you via email with contact information and weekly overviews. Additional information will be provided in course announcements and web conferences. Each course section has an assigned Instructional Associate who will be your primary point of contact and who will provide support throughout the course. Please work with your Professor and Instructional Associate by sharing your experiences and asking questions. If you have any questions, you may contact your Professor(s) and IA via email. Please provide your section on all correspondence.

Important Course Information

This course includes candidates from two diverse programs, Masters in Education Administration and Masters in Educational Technology Leadership. While each program leads to principal certification, they each have unique requirements. It is critical for success in this course that you view all videos, complete all readings, and complete all assignments and discussion boards. In addition, you should read the weekly overviews, and check your lamar.edu email and Blackboard announcements daily! Important course information is disseminated through Bb course announcements and/or your Lamar email account.

During this course you will have the opportunity to participate in synchronous web conferences and you are strongly encouraged to attend. The Web Conference schedule and meeting room URL is posted in Bb Course Professor Welcome Announcement. The web conferences will be recorded and if you cannot attend in person, you can review the recordings for important course information. You are responsible for the material discussed during the web conferences.

Additionally, you are required to attend (in person) at least one of the five Interactive Practicum Coach/LCE Web Conferences and submit a Reflection Assignment. The Interactive Practicum Coach/LCE Web Conference schedule and meeting room URL is posted in Bb Course Professor Welcome Announcement.

To register your attendance in the course, you must post your initial week one Discussion Board post no later than the fourth class day. Failure to do so may result in you being dropped from the course and forfeiting course fees.

14. Update the Tk20 portfolio to include Practicum log, Action Research Report, and Practicum Coach Interactive Web Conference Reflection.

Educational Leadership and Technology Standards

This course is aligned with both state and national standards, and the course content reflects these standards. State accreditation is based on program standards adopted by the State Board of Education Certification (SBEC). National accreditation is based on program standards of the National Council for Accredited Teacher Education (NCATE) and its specialized professional associations (SPA). The SPA for administrator preparation programs is the Educational Leadership Constituency Council (ELCC). Their standards are aligned with the SBEC standards for principals. These standards serve as the foundation for the courses within the School Administration program and help assure that this course of study is authoritative and represents best practice within the field. The SPA for the Educational Technology Leadership program is the International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE).

You should become familiar with the standards that guide your learning and program of study. SBEC Standards are accessible on the College of Education and Human Development website: <http://dept.lamar.edu/education/standards/st.html>. ELCC standards are accessible at http://www.npbea.org/ELCC/ELCC standards. A copy of the TExES Preparation Manual can be found at <http://cms.texas-ets.org/texas/prepmaterials/texas-preparation-manuals/>. ISTE standards are accessible at: <http://www.iste.org/Libraries/PDFs/NETS-C.sflb.ashx>

Tk20 (<http://lamar.tk20.com>)

Lamar University has implemented the use of Tk20, a comprehensive assessment system to assist with program improvement and accreditation. Tk20 is the official electronic portfolio software of Lamar University College of Education and Human Development. Program required key assessments, projects, work samples, applications for field experience, professional testing and certification recommendations will be collected, processed or archived through the Tk20 secure portal.

It is the responsibility of each student pursuing any degree or certification as an educator to purchase an account to access and use Tk20. The account activation fee is considered a professional expense incurred as part of an educator preparation program. The user account may be utilized for seven years from the activation date.

You are required to submit and upload artifacts to your TK20 course binder at the end of week 5. Failure to submit the required documents will result in receiving an "I" or "F" in the course and the student will be placed on "Academic Hold."

Also, a zero will be recorded in Blackboard for assignments until the associated required document is submitted to Tk20.

Late Work

All assignments are due by 11:59 pm on 7th day of each course week. Late work will not be accepted except in extremely unusual circumstances and must be approved by your Professor(s) or Instructional Associates PRIOR to due dates. A maximum 2-day "grace period" will be granted for extenuating circumstances. After the "grace period," assignments will incur a 10% deduction for each day the assignment is late. No work will be accepted more than one week after the due date. There will be no "grace period" for Week 5. No assignments will be accepted after the last day of the course. Late assignments if granted, will incur a 10% deduction for each day the assignment is late. Acceptance of late assignments without prior approval is at the discretion of the professor with appropriate penalty assessed. Discussion board posts will not be accepted late and will not be granted a "grace period" for extenuating circumstances!

Special Accommodations:

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is located in the Communications building room 105. Office staff collaborate with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations.

For students:

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations.

If you are registered with DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

Class Participation:

Students are expected to follow the course schedule, meet assignments and reading deadline dates. Student work is expected to be submitted in the required format for the assignment. Follow the directions and rubrics in order to receive maximum points. It is important to complete all reading assignments, view all videos and follow the directions for completion. It is the student's responsibility to maintain appropriate equipment and connection at all times to fully participate in the class. Make sure you have a secondary backup of your work. Computer or network outage is not considered extenuating circumstances.

Academic Honesty:

Lamar University strongly believes in ethical behavior. In addition to the knowledge and skills necessary to teach children, dispositions (such as honesty and trust) are important qualities for a successful educator. Candidates are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner. Academic honesty is expected on all assignments. All work submitted must be your own work and done under parameters assigned by the professor(s) of record. Any form of cheating and/or plagiarism will not be tolerated. It is expected that students understand what constitutes plagiarism (www.plagiarism.org is an excellent resource, if you are unsure) and will be held responsible for any instances of it, "accidental" or not. Any student found plagiarizing or cheating may receive an "F" for the course.

Disciplinary proceedings will be initiated if academic dishonesty is suspected. Instances of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to, misrepresentation of actual work completed, using paper or other work written by others to satisfy the requirements for this course, cheating, plagiarizing, or knowingly furnishing false information. Plagiarism includes any instance of copying another's work without proper citation. Guidelines for direct quotes are found in the most current APA Style Manual. Such actions are unprofessional and will result in a reasonable penalty and/or automatic failing course grade. The professor will assign a reasonable penalty for academic dishonesty. If you do not assent to the findings and/or the penalty, you must file an appeal with the department chairperson within five days, as provided by the Student Handbook.

Ethics and Professional Behavior. It is the responsibility of the student to read and understand the Code of Ethics and Standards Practices for Texas Educators. In a Masters level program the Code of Ethics and Standards Practices for Texas Educators is an expectation.

Sexual Harassment:

In accordance with administrative policy, sexual harassment is reprehensible and will not be tolerated by the University. Behavior in the course must conform to the university policy.

Syllabus Subject to Change:

While information and assurances are provided in this course syllabus, it should be understood that content may change in keeping with new research and literature and events beyond the control of the course professor. Students will be informed of any substantive occurrences that will produce syllabus changes.

Virtual Office Hours: Virtual office hours and web conferences may be held throughout the course. Your professor will advise students on the particular medium of online interaction outside of the Blackboard platform.

Lamar.edu Email:

All email correspondence will be through the lamar.edu email system. Please check email through your lamar.edu account daily for correspondence and announcements from your professor and Instructional Associate. It is strongly advised to have email forwarded from the Lamar system to the email account you regularly use. This will help keep you informed of announcements in a timely fashion. The Lamar tech support can guide you through the simple process of setting up email to be forwarded regularly.

Practice good email etiquette.

- Always include a meaningful subject line. Include your Course and Section in the subject line.
- Use standard fonts.
- Always be polite and respectful. Remember without facial expressions some comments may be taken the wrong way. Be careful in wording your emails. You are dealing with real people on the other end.
- Read your message before you send it. Make sure you come across as respectful, friendly, and approachable.
- Respect the privacy of other class members.

Time Management:

Time management may be the biggest factor in succeeding in an online course. An online course can take a considerable amount of time. For this reason, you should begin the To Do List for each week early. Work on it regularly over the week rather than waiting until the last day or two. This will allow you the opportunity to work out problems or get assistance if needed.

Problems:

Questions and problems are likely to come up during the course. When they do, contact your Instructional Associate or Professor(s) as soon as possible. Problems are generally easier to deal with when they are small. Your Instructional Associate is your primary point of contact.

Drop:

It is your responsibility to make sure that you are officially enrolled in this course. If, at any point, you decide to not participate in this course, it is your responsibility to officially drop or withdraw from enrollment. Failure to do so may result in a failing grade. Drops after the course begins may carry financial penalty in that full reimbursement may not be possible. Refer to the Critical Dates calendar (<http://luonline.lamar.edu/files/documents/luonline/graduate-folder/med-5-and-15-week-calendar-of-critical-dates.pdf>). For further information, contact luacademic@lamar.edu.

Attendance, Assignment, and Make-up Requirements:

All students are expected to log into the course on the first day of the first week of the course. Students will be dropped after the first week for non-participation. All assignments are due on the dates provided in the courseware. Late/make-up assignment due dates will be determined by the Professor.

Discussion Board: All students are expected to contribute to the Discussion Board. Discussion Board posts will not be accepted late and there will be no “grace” period extended for Discussion Board posts.

Academic Continuity Plan

In the unlikely event that Lamar University closes due to a hurricane or other disaster, and the closure last four or more days, instruction will continue. Students are expected to login to Lamar University's website's homepage (www.lamar.edu) for instructions about continuing courses remotely.

General assessment criteria for all student work

This is a Graduate level course. The Educational Leadership faculty members have high expectations for your academic performance and professional contributions in this course and program. We believe all participating students can achieve at the high standards. All grades entered by the Instructional Associates (IA) are reviewed by the professor(s) of the course and by be altered to meet expected academic rigor. The Professor(s) and Instructional Associate(s) will be asking the following questions in assessing student work in this course:

- How well does the student work address the criteria outlined in the rubric and the guidelines in the assignment and weekly overviews?
- Was the student work completed in a timely manner?
- Does the student work exhibit intellectual honesty and graduate level commitment?
- Does the work exhibit professional graduate level writing?

Specific instructions and rubrics for all assignments are included in the assignment documents and weekly overviews.

The following is required to receive credit in EDLD 5397:

1. Complete and receive approval of the Observing and Participating Videos.
2. Submit Campus Mentor's Information.
3. Participate in the required Interactive Web Practicum Coach/LCE Conference(s) and submit the Reflection Assignment to Bb and Tk20 Portfolio. Note: All students enrolled in EDLD 5397 must participate in a Interactive Practicum Coach/LCE Web Conference during the 5-week session even if they have completed two or more observations previously. If a student has not completed their first interactive web conference, they must participate in Interactive Web Conference One and Interactive Web Conference Two during EDLD 5397.
4. Completion of at least 15 of the required 38 practicum activities and a minimum of 150 campus-based practicum hours are required to be logged and reflections provided by the end of week 5 to received credit in EDLD 5397. An original signature of the campus mentor is required.¹
5. Meet with campus mentor to discuss the PCPSE and Dispositions for Educators Survey and ensure that he or she submits the document (electronically).
6. Submit the PCPSE and Dispositions for Educators Survey Reflections to Bb and Tk20 Portfolio.
7. Satisfactory (77/110) complete all required sections (with required subheadings) of the Action Research Report. Submit to Bb and Tk20 Portfolio.²
8. Complete and record the score of the first attempt of the Lamar Competency Exam (LCE).
9. Submit all required documents to Tk20 Portfolio.

If any of the above items are not completed, you will receive an "I" or "F" in EDLD 5397 AND be placed on "Academic Hold." Also, a zero will be recorded for assignments until the associated required document is submitted to Tk20.

Students who do not successfully complete ALL requirements of EDLD5397 will be placed on "Academic Hold."

38 activities and at least 150 campus-based, site-supervised practicum hours with an original campus mentor signature.

2. All students must complete an Action Research Report using the current template in the Resource section of the courseware.

Participation:

Discussion Board: All students are expected to participate in the discussion board activity each week. Your contributions provide a way of interacting with, responding to, and learning from your colleagues.

Web Conferences: During the class you will have the opportunity to participate in weekly synchronous Web conferences. Each session will be recorded and the URL will be posted on the course Google Site. You are responsible for material discussed during the web conferences.

Learner Outcomes for Web Conferences

- 1) Learn to operate the software and hardware for an interactive web conference.
- 2) Increase interaction between students and faculty for academic and intellectual content knowledge.
- 3) Clarification of EDLD 5397 assignments.
- 4) Share local experiences with one another.

Assignments:

Assignments are due by 11:59 pm on the last day of each class week. All assignments must be submitted via the courseware. Assignments will not be accepted through email. The value of each weekly assignment toward your final grade is provided in the rubrics on each assignment document. NO re-submissions are permitted.

Grading Scale:

A = 450 - 500 Points - Accomplished

B = 400 - 449 Points - Proficient

C = 350 - 399 Points - Needs Improvement (Unacceptable for graduate level credit)

F = Below 350 points - Failure

Coaching Plan for Onsite Visits

Observation 1

- Introducing coaching tools
- Model Pre and Post conferencing protocols
- Watch a lesson and use Classroom Observation tool, TTESS rubric
- Score the lesson and plan a post conference
- Look at calibration of scores between candidate and coach/field supervisor and provide feedback on scoring and post conference plan
- Candidate will reflect on process
- Coach/Field Supervisor will complete the Record of Coaching Conversation outlining next steps and follow-up
- Coach/Field Supervisor sends feedback to campus site supervisor regarding candidate's progress

Observation 2:

- Conduct pre-conference with teacher and Coach/Field Supervisor will provide feedback
- Observe a classroom with candidate and Coach/Field Supervisor using the classroom observation tool
- Look at calibration of scores between candidate and Coach/Field Supervisor and provide feedback on scoring and post conference plan
- Candidate will create a post conference plan and role play with coach
- Candidate Conducts the actual post conference
- Coach will complete the Record of Coaching Conversation outlining next steps and follow-up
- Candidate will reflect on process
- Coach sends feedback to campus site supervisor regarding candidate's progress

Observation 3

- Conduct pre-conference with teacher and Coach/Field Supervisor will provide feedback

- Observe a classroom with candidate and Coach/Field Supervisor using the classroom observation tool
- Look at calibration of scores between candidate and Coach/Field Supervisor and provide feedback on scoring and post conference plan
- Candidate will create a post conference plan and role play with coach
- Candidate Conducts the actual post conference
- Coach will complete the Record of Coaching Conversation outlining next steps and follow-up
- Candidate will reflect on process
- Coach sends feedback to campus site supervisor regarding candidate's progress
- Coach/Field Supervisor completes the final Lamar instruction coaching rubric

Questions	Link Responses to Indicators
1. What is the purpose of this lesson? What are the learning outcomes for the class? What do you want the students to understand and be able to do?
2. Which standards will you teach, and which part of your curriculum will be used to teach them?
3. How does your plan fit into a sequence of learning for this class? What has happened to lead up to this lesson? What will follow?
4. How will you engage the students in learning? What will you do? What will the students do? (Attach artifacts such as lesson plans, graphic organizers, visuals, materials students will use, assessments)
5. How have you planned for text-dependent questioning, thinking, problem-solving, and utilizing core practices in your subject area?
6. Briefly describe the students in this class, including those with intervention needs? What data do you use for understanding your students/ needs? How will you group and differentiate?
7. How will you know that you have achieved the purpose of this class? What aspects of the lesson may be challenging? How would you adjust, if needed?
8. Which indicators would you like me to focus on? What additional information about the class would you like to share?

- In what ways do the activities, resources, technology, and instructional materials align to the instructional goals?
- How are activities varied to address different ability levels and learning needs?
- What opportunities do you provide for students to set individual goals and hold each other accountable for meetings those goals? How does goal setting happen within instructional groups?
- How do you ensure that the activities planned are engaging and keep students focused and motivated to learn? How do they engage students in ownership of their own learning?

2.1 Achieving Expectations

- Why is it important to have academic expectations for students that are high and demanding?
- How will you obtain evidence that most students have demonstrated mastery of the objective?
- How will students take initiative for their own learning and self-monitor their progress?
- What are some examples of high expectations with this unit of study/lesson/activity?
- What opportunities do you provide for students to set high social-emotional expectations for themselves?
- How are students expected to persist with instruction to demonstrate progress towards mastery of learning? What types of strategies do you use to keep them motivated and focused?
- How do you anticipate student mistakes and/or misunderstandings? What types of common learning pitfall do you generally see with this lesson/unit?
- When you know students will struggle with what is presented, what do you do?
- In what ways are students expected to take initiative for their own learning? What role do you play in this?

2.2 Content Knowledge and Expertise

- How do you develop or select instructional strategies to teach specific skills?
- How do you decide on ways in which you will connect the content to other disciplines and real-world experiences?
- How will you sequence the instruction so that students understand how the lesson fits within the discipline and real- world scenarios?
- How do you plan for opportunities for students to engage in different types of thinking?
- What are some examples related to how you model thinking for students?
- What do you believe are the key concepts with this unit of study/lesson?
- How do you know when to provide differentiated explanations for students?

- What content, if any, do you anticipate will present challenges for students? What cues will tell you that they do not understand what is presented? What might you do to prepare for these misunderstandings up front? What techniques do you/might you use to mitigate those concerns?
- How is instruction sequenced to allow students to see the connections within and across disciplines?
- What are some examples of how you continuously refine your knowledge and expertise?
- How do you stay current in the field?

2.3 Communication

- How will the goals for learning be communicated to students?
- How will you provide opportunities for students to elaborate and extend their learning?
- How do you provide for wait time when questioning during a lesson?
- Why is it important for teachers to ask higher order questions that are aligned to the lesson's objective(s)?
- How do you communicate your expectations to students?
- How is student-to-student communication encouraged and established during instruction?
- How do you make decisions about the types of technology and/or visual tools to use during the lesson?
- How are technology and visual tools used to engage students and communicate learning?
- How do you know when your explanations or direct teach are clear and coherent? What strategies do you use to assess whether students understood what was explained? What happens when students do not understand?
- How are questions leveled to increase complex thinking during the lesson? In what ways do they promote deeper thinking and a broader understanding of the objective(s)?
- What are some strategies you use to provoke and guide discussions with students?
- How are students expected to communicate what they have learned?

2.4 Differentiation

- How will the instructional strategies address all students' learning needs?
- How do you provide differentiated instructional methods within your lesson?
- How will the lesson engage and challenge all students of all levels?
- Why is it important to provide varied options for student mastery?
- Why is it important to provide multiple strategies to teach and assess students?
- How are lessons adapted and presented using a variety of strategies to reach all students?
- In what ways do you monitor student participation and performance? What do you do when these expectations are not present?
- What student behaviors do you look for during the lesson as signals that differentiation may be needed?
- How do you know when students are confused?
- What do you do when students become disengaged? How do you refocus instruction?

2.5 Monitor and Adjust

- How will you check for understanding during the lesson?
- How will you use student feedback to make adjustments to your instruction?
- How does student engagement impact student performance?
- What strategies do you use to gather input from students? How is this information used to monitor and adjust instruction?

- How are activities adjusted to align with the lesson objective and yet meet students' needs?
- How is pacing monitored and adjusted to maximize learning and keep students progressing towards mastery? What behaviors might you see to indicate that pacing needs to be adjusted?
- What strategies do you use for ongoing checks for understanding?
- What kinds of questions do you ask when purposefully checking for understanding?
- What are some examples of specific, academic feedback you provide to students? How do students provide academic feedback to each other? What are students expected to do with the feedback?

3.1 Classroom Environment, Routines and Procedures

- How do you ensure that routines, procedures and transitions are efficient in order to maximize student learning?
- How will different grouping strategies be used to encourage student responsibility for resources and materials?
- How do you build safety in the classroom, promoting open communications and/or collaboration?
- What are some strategies for involving students in leading and managing responsibilities within the classroom?
- How are students encouraged to take risks?
- What would students say about the environment – from both instructional and social-emotional aspects? How do you know that?
- If you could refine your routines and procedures, what would you do? Why?

3.2 Managing Student Behavior

- What systems are in place to effectively monitor student behavior?
- How do you plan to address inappropriate behavior should that become an issue during instruction?
- How are students involved in developing classroom procedures?
- How are clear behavioral expectations communicated and monitored?
- What types of consequences do you use when behavior is inconsistent?
- What types of non-verbal signals do you use with students to re-direct behavior?
- What is the relationship between student behavior and student engagement?
- How does your behavior management system extend beyond classroom walls?

3.3 Classroom Culture

- How do you determine/plan appropriate procedures to ensure a respectful classroom culture?
- How do you provide opportunities for students to collaborate and build a strong team culture?
- In what ways does your classroom culture reflect high expectations for performance and student-centered behaviors?
- How does the classroom culture ensure that relevant, meaningful learning is the norm?
- How are activities structured so that students are expected to collaborate positively with each other?
- How is positive rapport amongst students established and maintained?
- In what ways are students empowered to build a positive classroom culture that they own and respect?
